PENNSYLVANIA BAR ASSOCIATION

2004 Annual Meeting

MAY 12-14, 2004

HERSHEY LODGE & CONVENTION CENTER
Dear Colleague:

As the chair of the 2004 Pennsylvania Bar Association Annual Meeting, I invite you to attend this year’s meeting, scheduled for May 12-14 at the Hershey Lodge and Convention Center in Hershey.

This year’s Annual Meeting begins a new chapter in PBA history as we welcome Michael H. Reed, an African American, as the first person of color to be elected as PBA President. Reed, a partner with Pepper Hamilton LLP, previously served as chair of the PBA’s House of Delegates. We also will be honored with the appearance of Dennis Archer, president of the American Bar Association. Archer, an African American who is the first person of color elected to the highest office of the ABA and a former Detroit mayor and Michigan Supreme Court Justice, will give remarks to the attendees of the PBA Annual Dinner on Thursday evening. Not short on provocative speakers, this year’s meeting also will feature Mary Matalin, political commentator and strategist, who will address the PBA Women in the Profession Conference luncheon on Wednesday. Co-host of CNN’s Crossfire, Matalin brings an insider’s perspective to her analysis of the corridors of power in Washington.

You won’t find a better opportunity in the state than our Annual Meeting to network with your colleagues and friends in the legal profession. Wednesday’s Pro Bono Conference, Women in the Profession Conference, and multitude of CLE programs will provide practical and informative sessions for lawyers from throughout the state. On Thursday, more than 40 PBA committees and sections will meet, followed by Thursday evening’s PBA Annual Dinner, where we will bid adieu to outgoing President Thomas M. Golden and welcome new President Reed. Friday’s House of Delegates meeting will bring together the PBA’s policy-making body to discuss, dissect and decide important issues facing the profession.

Special thanks are in order for USI Colburn Insurance Service, Lexis/Nexis and Citizens Bank for their sponsorship of various activities during the Annual Meeting. Please join us for an exciting meeting featuring excellent networking opportunities, prominent national speakers, outstanding CLE programs … and a deserved respite from the pressures of daily practice.

I look forward to seeing you in Hershey!

Sincerely,

Pamela F. Cross

Managing Your Legal Workforce Without Running Afoul of Employment Law or Ethical Duties (CLE 302)
Managing a successful law firm, legal department or organization in the new millennium is a daunting task. Management must be concerned with both the practice of law and the business of law. Law firm leadership has taken on the diverse roles of attorney, business owner, manager and employer and, increasingly, must address workplace crises concerning tough lawyering and staffing issues. These crises require leadership to meet the dual imperatives of employment law and the duty to comply with The Rules of Professional Responsibility, and to balance business initiatives with legal and ethical duties. This course addresses the hottest issues facing leadership and management in law firms and other legal employers for 2004.

The Current State of Bad Faith in Pennsylvania (CLE 305)
Our panel will provide lively interaction from the perspective of the prosecution and defense of bad faith cases. The discussion will focus on one of the most significant bad faith decisions in recent Pennsylvania history, Hollock v. Erie Insurance Exchange (decided January 2004). Hollock represents the first time Pennsylvania’s appellate courts have examined punitive damages following the United States Supreme Court’s decision in Campbell v. State Farm. The Superior Court applied the factors outlined by the court in Campbell. Although everyone may not agree on what the Hollock court says, everyone must agree that it will have a tremendous impact on the bad faith environment in Pennsylvania. You will hear the latest significant developments that will impact your bad faith practice in Pennsylvania.

Representing an Individual Entering a Nursing Home (CLE 306)
Could you afford to write a check for $5,300 every month to cover the cost of your spouse’s or parent’s long-term care? With lifespan on the rise, you might be looking at that price tag and if you multiply that figure by 28 months, the average length of stay in a nursing home, you might be looking at financial devastation. A basic introduction to this area, this program offers valuable tips for planning for long-term care and for finding funds to cover the cost of that care.

Pro Bono Conference
Wednesday, May 12, 2004
8:45 a.m. - 5:15 p.m.

The PBA hosts its third annual Pro Bono Conference as part of its Annual Meeting in Hershey to emphasize PBA's commitment to meeting the civil legal aid needs of Pennsylvania's poor. Topics to be covered during the conference include ethical issues in pro bono representation, bias in the courts, the Older & Wiser outreach program that focuses on senior law issues, an introduction to ProBono.Net and PALawHelp.org, housing law issues, mediation as a new paradigm in pro bono services, language access issues and an update on utility law. Six hours of continuing legal education will be offered during the conference.

7:30 a.m. - 8:45 a.m.
Registration & Continental Breakfast

8:45 a.m. - 9:45 a.m.
The Ethics of Pro Bono (CLE 301)
Pro Bono practitioners and coordinators from around the state, along with legal aid professionals, will meet for a combination of networking and ethics education that explores a range of issues, from bias in the courts to the need for letters of agreement in pro bono cases. The audience will review and report on a series of hypothetical situations, raising ethical issues faced by pro bono attorneys. The panelists will respond to the reports and provide their expert analysis.

Moderator:
William P. Carlucci, PBA Vice President, Elion, Wayne, Grieco, Carlucci, Shipman & Irwin PC, Williamsport

Panel:

Featured Keynote Speaker: Mary Matalin
The Pro Bono Conference will join the Women in the Profession at lunch and share in an informative keynote speech by Mary Matalin and a wonderful networking opportunity. (See Women in the Profession agenda on Page 5 for details about the speaker.) This will also provide time for conference participants to browse the exhibits and make bids on the Bar Foundation auction items.

2:00 p.m. - 3:30 p.m.
Older & Wiser: Educating the Public About the Law While Increasing Pro Bono Access (CLE 308)
This session highlights Older & Wiser and provides an update on senior law issues. Neighborhood Legal Services Association (NLSA) and southwestern Pennsylvania legislators co-sponsor Older & Wiser, a public service initiative that provides free legal information seminars on matters of special importance to the elderly and their families. NLSA developed the project on behalf of the 14-county Southwestern Pennsylvania Legal Services Consortium and has co-hosted the first seminars with legislators from districts within its four-county service area. The project is a cooperative effort between NLSA, who developed the presentations, legislators who host the seminars, and the private bar that deliver the information to the public during the seminars. A substantive law update on senior law will be provided along with the program model.

Annual Luncheon
Featured Keynote Speaker: Mary Matalin
Continuing the Women in the Profession Annual Conference’s record of offering exciting luncheon speakers, this year’s Annual Luncheon features Mary Matalin, one of the nation’s hardest-hitting political commentators. Ms. Matalin brings an insider’s perspective to her analysis of the corridors of power and America’s future. She is admired for her astute insights and intellectual integrity. She appears frequently as a political commentator and co-host of CNN’s Crossfire. She is co-author of All’s Fair with her husband, James Carville. She has authored a new book, Letters to My Daughters. The Women in the Profession will also be awarding the prestigious Anne X. Alpern Award.

What They Never Told You In Law School — You’re the Boss: Getting Comfortable with Being in Charge (CLE 310)
Supervising secretaries, paralegals and associates is a challenge for virtually everyone. Some people find their approach is too nice — and as a result, they get overlooked and taken advantage of. Others come on too strong — and wind up alienating subordinates and other colleagues. If you have experienced any difficulty balancing positive workplace relationships with getting the job done and are concerned with the possible legal and ethical consequences, this panel will provide practical solutions to manage that process.

Stopping the Exodus: The Challenge of Lawyer Retention (CLE 314)
Women and minority attorneys are leaving law firms and the practice of law in increasing numbers. What is causing this exodus? Are there environmental, cultural, generational or other barriers contributing to the problem? What practical steps can law firms and the legal profession as a whole take to stem the tide? This panel will review the research data in this area and provide insight into what some firms and legal organizations are doing to stop the exodus.

Cancellation Policy: Pre-registration deadline for Annual Meeting is April 30. After that date, all registrations will be accepted on a space-available basis. Written cancellation for any portion of Annual Meeting registration, including meals, must be received by noon on May 5. Upon receipt, a refund will be issued minus a $75 administrative fee.

Return Pages 9 and 10 to: Meetings Department, PBA, PO Box 186, Harrisburg, PA 17108-0186, or fax credit card registration to 717-238-1204. For more information, call 800-932-0311, ext. 2234. Registrations will not be processed without payment.
Single/Double Occupancy: $153.00 daily per room

European Plan: These rates include overnight accommodations only per room per night and are subject to 6% PA state occupancy tax and 3% local tax.

The Hershey Lodge and Convention Center provides a smoke-free environment.

Reservation requests received less than 45 days prior to arrival will be accepted on a space available basis only. Kindly mail this form to the address above or FAX it to 717-534-8668. If you care to receive a confirmation, one will be faxed to you within 24 hours of receipt. Please confirm your departure date as the Lodge does charge a $50.00 early departure fee.
