

On behalf of all of the members of the PBA Young Lawyers Division, I am pleased to invite you to attend our 2007 Summer Conference at the Seven Springs Mountain Resort in Champion.

This year, we will host an exciting forum involving Pennsylvania's Supreme Court candidates. The forum will include a Q&A session that will allow attendees to interact with the candidates on important issues.

The conference also will provide an excellent opportunity for young lawyers to earn both substantive and ethics CLE credits. Our roster of courses will cover topics such as criminal law for the non-criminal lawyer, how to avoid malpractice, the Pennsylvania lawyer disciplinary system, how to maximize your mentoring relationship, and the legislative versus judicial relationship.

Of course, it will not be all work at this year's Summer Conference. As always, the challenge will be on the links during the Annual YLD Golf Tournament at the beautiful Seven Springs course. We also will have a special bus trip for attendees to visit one of America's most spectacular architectural wonders – Frank Lloyd Wright's Fallingwater.

Each year, the YLD strives to make this event fun, enlightening and educational. The key ingredient to the success of the conference, however, is your attendance! We hope that you will join us.
