PBA DAVID M. ROSENBLUM
LGBTQ+ PUBLIC POLICY AWARD

NOMINATION

The PBA LGBTQ+ Rights Committee is seeking nominations for the Annual PBA David M. Rosenblum LGBTQ+ Public Policy Award, to be presented during the PBA Annual Meeting, May 12, 2022, at the Hershey Lodge & Convention Center.

David Rosenblum, a very active member of the PBA LGBTQ+ Rights Committee and a staunch proponent of civil rights and especially in those circumstances relating to LGBTQ+ issues, passed away suddenly in May of 2014. David was a driving force behind the “How Marriage Counts Report” project—although, unfortunately he did not live to see the report get published in June of 2014. He dedicated his professional career to the advancement of LGBTQ+ rights, and he was a leader in promoting civil rights and equality before the law for the LGBTQ+ community.

Each nominee must satisfy the following criteria:

1. The nominated individual must be a lawyer, a member of the judiciary, or a legal academic, who has made a significant contribution to the advancement of LGBTQ+ individuals in the legal profession and/or to LGBTQ+ legal issues; and
2. The nominee must be either a member of the LGBTQ+ community or an ally of the LGBTQ+ community; and
3. The nominee must impact society through constitutional advocacy, legislative acts or advocacy, or judicial decisions and development of case law impacting society in a manner that supports equality and justice for the LGBTQ+ Community;
4. The nominee must be a leader and use their position of leadership to inspire others to act and promote civil rights and equality before the law for the LGBTQ+ Community;
5. The nominee must have effected change that resulted in a positive impact for the LGBTQ+ community.
