

THE PBA DAVID M. ROSENBLUM GLBT PUBLIC POLICY AWARD

The Pennsylvania Bar Association is pleased to announce that nominations are now being received for the Annual David M. Rosenblum GLBT Public Policy Award. We invite you to nominate individuals who meet the following criteria:

- i. The nominated individual must be a lawyer, a member of the judiciary, or a legal academic, who has made a significant contribution to the advancement of GLBT individuals in the legal profession and/or to GLBT legal issues; and
- ii. The nominee must be either a member of the GLBT community or an ally of the GLBT community; and
- iii. The nominee must impact society through constitutional advocacy, legislative acts or advocacy, or judicial decisions and development of case law impacting society in a manner that supports equality and justice for the GLBT Community;
- iv. The nominee must be a leader and use their position of leadership to inspire others to act and promote civil rights and equality before the law for the GLBT Community;
- v. The nominee must have effected change that resulted in a positive impact for the GLBT community.