

Congratulations to the Pennsylvania Bar Association (PBA) Minority Bar Committee's own Tsiwen Law for being named the recipient of the Philadelphia Bar Association's 2008 Wachovia Fidelity Award. This honor was bestowed on Tsiwen as a result of his significant accomplishments in improving the administration of justice as evidenced by his work on the passage of the Pennsylvania Court Interpreters Law.

Tsiwen is an active member of the PBA Minority Bar Committee and its subcommittees. He has served as the Committee's third chairperson and also served as the Minority-at-Large Governor on the PBA Board of Governors. He has educated so many on the true spirit behind the Minority Bar Committee and encouraged the involvement in PBA and becoming a part of its decision-making process.

12/08

