

TWANDA TURNER-HAWKINS
MANAGING ATTORNEY FOR ALLSTATE INSURANCE COMPANY AND ENCOMPASS FOR THE STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA
ELECTED
NATIONAL BAR ASSOCIATION VICE PRESIDENT

During the National Bar Association's 85th Annual Convention, August 11, 2010, Twanda Turner-Hawkins was elected Vice President. Twanda is the Managing Attorney of the Pennsylvania's Staff Counsel Operation for Allstate Insurance Company and Encompass. In 2009, she was the recipient of Allstate's "Distinguished Leadership Award."

As Vice President of Membership, she is charged with increasing the number of National Bar Association members and enhancing membership services in collaboration with the Executive Director. Prior to Twanda's election as Vice President, she was The Region Three Director and Vice Chair of the award-winning Corporate Law Section for the National Bar Association. Additionally, Twanda is a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association and its Staff counsel section and Minority Bar Committee. She is also a member of the American Bar Association, Philadelphia Association of Defense Counsel, Corporate Counsel Women of Color, The Barristers of Philadelphia, and the NBA Women's Law Division of Philadelphia.

Founded in 1925, the National Bar Association is the nation's oldest and largest national network of predominately African American attorneys and judges. It represents approximately 44,000 lawyers, judges, law professors and law students and has over 80 affiliate chapters throughout the United States and around the world. The organization seeks to advance the science of jurisprudence, preserve the independence of the judiciary and to uphold the honor and integrity of the legal profession.*
