Dear Colleague:

Re: Fifth Annual PBA Diversity Summit

The Pennsylvania Bar Association (PBA) Minority Bar Committee is pleased to announce that the Fifth Annual Diversity Summit will be held in Philadelphia on Friday, October 29, 2010, at the PBI CLE Conference Center, Wanamaker Building, 10th Floor. You are cordially invited to attend.

The theme for this year's Summit is Diversity & Inclusion: Renewing the Hope. Gretchen Mundorff, President of the PBA, will give welcoming remarks. The day's program will begin with a keynote address delivered by Romulo L. Diaz, Vice President of Governmental and External Affairs at PECO. Mr. Diaz's comments will draw upon his experience as a lawyer and executive in both the public and private sectors.

The overall purpose of the Diversity Summit is to foster dialogue statewide about diversity and inclusion in all sectors of the legal community, as well as to encourage collaboration and an exchange of best practices among organizations involved in diversity efforts. It also presents wonderful networking opportunities. The main program will be comprised of a series of panel discussions featuring representatives from all sectors of the legal profession. In keeping with the spirit of encouraging an exchange of ideas, time has been built into the agenda for questions from the audience.

Enclosed is a copy of the Agenda and a registration form for the Summit. Please complete and return your registration form as soon as possible, for space is limited. Once we reach capacity, we will no longer accept registrations.

We look forward to your participation in the Summit and thank you for your support.
