

Rhodia D. Thomas, Esq.

Rhodia D. Thomas, Esq., is currently the Executive Director of MidPenn Legal Services, a non-profit law firm that provides civil legal services to low-income individuals in 18 counties in central Pennsylvania. She graduated magna cum laude from Syracuse University, with a B.S. in Education, and received her J.D. from Widener University School of Law. Ms. Thomas has received several awards, including the PLAN Excellence Award, the Outstanding Minority Scholar Award, Women of Excellence Award and Adult Achievers Award sponsored by the Camp Curtin YMCA, and in 2002 she was named as one of 50 Minorities of Influence by the American Lawyer Media, publishers of the Legal Intelligencer and Pennsylvania Law Weekly. Ms. Thomas is active in the Pennsylvania Bar Association and currently serves as a member of the PBA Constitutional Review Committee and as Co-Chair of the Access to Justice Committee. She is also a member of the Minority Bar Committee and serves as Co-Chair of the MBC's Diversity Summit. Ms. Thomas is also a member of the Immigration Law and Legal Services to the Public Committees. Ms. Thomas has over 25 years of experience in public interest law and currently serves as President of the Pennsylvania Project Directors Association.