

30th Annual Schnader Print Media Awards Nominations from Pennsylvania Bar Association Members

The William A. Schnader Print Media Awards honor journalistic excellence in news and feature reporting and editorial and commentary writing about the legal system and its operations.

Members of the Pennsylvania Bar Association may make nominations for Schnader Awards. All entries submitted for consideration must have been published between July 1, 2008 and June 30, 2009 in a newspaper with at least 50% of its circulation within Pennsylvania.

Following receipt of this form, PBA staff will contact reporters and/or their editors directly to request that the member-nominated article(s)/editorial(s) be entered into the competition.

Attach a copy of the newspaper article(s)/editorial(s), if available. If you don't have a copy, please provide an approximate publication date and subject. PBA staff will attempt to track the article(s)/editorial(s) and identify the writer(s).

Please provide information about the legal reporting worthy of nomination:
