PRESIDENT JUDGE KATE FORD ELLIOTT

Superior Court of Pennsylvania
Suite 1660, Two Chatham Center
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15219
(412) 565-7670

PRESENT POSITION:

President Judge, Superior Court of Pennsylvania since January, 2006.

Judge, Superior Court of Pennsylvania since 1990. The Superior Court is an intermediate appellate court entertaining appeals from all 67 counties in Pennsylvania. As a court of general and residual jurisdiction, the Superior Court decides criminal and civil matters and cases involving divorce, support, custody, wills and estates, and matters of property and commerce.

PRIOR LEGAL EXPERIENCE:

Attorney, Kirkpatrick & Lockhart. November, 1988 to October, 1989. Associated with the firm and worked with the litigation group. Kirkpatrick & Lockhart is the second largest law firm in the city of Pittsburgh with a heavy litigation caseload in state and federal court.

Chief Staff Attorney, Superior Court of Pennsylvania, June, 1982 to January, 1988. Responsible for the supervision of a department of seventeen staff attorneys and six secretaries in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia offices. Central Legal Staff serves as an in-house counsel department for the Superior Court advising judges and law clerks on substantive and procedural matters before the court. Under the direction of the President Judge, the Chief Staff Attorney is responsible for the development and supervision of appeal screening procedures for the court; the review of petitions and motions filed by counsel for presentation to the court for disposition; the general supervision of all conflict assessment staff attorney teams and review of all potential opinion conflict situations; review of all reargument applications; the administration of the court's accelerated docket; the development of a computerized issue-tracking index within the court; and the ongoing development of internal operating procedures for managing the volume and complexity of the court's appeal caseload; and the creation of a fast track program for appeals involving children.

Administrative Assistant to former President Judge William F. Cercone, Superior Court of Pennsylvania, August, 1980 to June, 1982. Served President Judge Cercone during a time when the Superior Court was expanded from a seven-judge to a fifteen-judge court. (December, 1980) Assisted the President Judge in the coordination of the operations of the Judges' chambers, the Prothonotary and Central Legal Staff offices; budget formulation and space planning for judicial and administrative operations; the development of internal operating procedures for the court and the planning and organization of annual education conferences for the judges of the court.

Judicial Law Clerk to Harry M. Montgomery, Senior Judge of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania, January, 1978 to August, 1980. Involved the research and preparation of draft opinions for the Judge's approval in all areas of civil, criminal and family law within the Superior Court's general jurisdiction; as senior clerk, assisted in the supervision and evaluation of other clerks and legal interns, as well as the general supervision of the operations of the office.
