As a solo practitioner from 2001 to 2013, I engaged in a litigation practice focusing mostly on family, civil, and labor law litigation. I was in a court or hearing almost daily. As an assistant district attorney and chief deputy district attorney from 1998 to 2013, I was responsible for the prosecution of various criminal cases including serious criminal matters such as rape, assault, homicide by vehicle and murder (including death penalty cases). As a chief deputy district attorney, I was also responsible for the supervision of other attorneys and staff.

- b) Describe your typical clients and mention the areas, if any, in which you concentrated your practice:

As a solo practitioner, my clients were everyday citizens and occasionally entities such as small business owners, estates, or non profits. As a prosecutor, my "client" would be the citizens of the Commonwealth.

Have you ever held any other judicial office? If so, please state the offices, courts and the periods of such service. Please describe the jurisdiction of each of such courts, with any limitations upon the jurisdiction of each court:

I was elected to a ten year term on the Court of Common Pleas of Blair County in 2013 and began my service in January 2014. I am a general jurisdiction judge and handle any matter that would fall within the jurisdiction of the Court of Common Pleas. I have not held any other judicial office.

2. Non-jury: 90-95%

3. Appellate argument: N/A

4. Other: Committees, Administrative responsibilities

d) Five of the more significant opinions you have rendered and citations thereto if the cases were reported:

None of my opinions have resulted in reported decisions. I respectfully submit that the Court of Common Pleas Courts in Pennsylvania issue significant and important decisions on a daily basis. Therefore, I have reviewed my opinions for the preceding six months to provide examples of opinions I have rendered. While I wouldn't consider any of them more significant than others, they are in my opinion significant: 1. Commonwealth v Andrews, decided June 9, 2016 (Post Sentence Motion denied in case where Defendant was sentenced to thirty-three to sixty-six years as a result of convictions of drug law violations resulting from a prescription drug ring that operated in over forty counties in Pennsylvania.) 2. Vargas et al. v. Estate of Wagner et al. decided August 9, 2016 (Summary Judgment granted in part. Commonwealth removed as a defendant in multiple injury automobile accident case involving five different counsel) 3. Commonwealth v. Clark, decided August 9, 2016 (Defendant's omnibus pre-trial motion denied. Case involves criminal charges against defendant for alleged physical injuries incurred by a six week old baby) 4. Commonwealth v. Stephenson, decided August 11, 2016 (Motion to Modify Sentence denied after sentence of eighteen to forty years resulting from third degree murder conviction) 5. Rabenstein v. City of Altoona, decided October 7, 2016 (City of Altoona Plumbing Board decision constituted a local agency decision and therefore written findings required for decision to deny applicant a license to operate as a plumber)

13. If a substantial portion of your practice had been before administrative boards, commissions or agencies during the five years before you became a member of the judiciary, identify the boards, commissions or agencies before which you practiced and estimate percentages of practice time devoted thereto:

Approximately twenty percent of my private practice resulted from litigation in the Unemployment Compensation Board of Review, Bureau of Workers Compensation, or State Civil Service Commission. I also occasionally represented clients concerning filings with the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission.

14. If a substantial portion of your practice had been before Appellate courts during the five years before you became a member of the judiciary, identify the Appellate Courts before which you have practiced and estimate percentages of practice time devoted thereto:

A less than substantial portion of my private law practice involved matters in the Appellate Courts. However, I occasionally litigated appeals in the Commonwealth Court and Superior Court on behalf of clients. One of those cases resulted in a reported en banc decision from the Commonwealth Court the day I was sworn in as Judge.

As a prosecutor, I consistently handled matters in the Superior Court. The District Attorney's Office I worked for followed a vertical prosecution model and therefore I defended all of my convictions in the Appellate Courts when an appeal was filed. This occurred often. I also initiated appeals on behalf of the Commonwealth when appropriate. In the five years prior to being a member of the judiciary, I was also a supervisor in the District Attorney's Office (one of two prosecutors acting as the functional equivalent of First Assistant). In this capacity, I occasionally handled matters filed with the Supreme Court and I oversaw and provided guidance in Appellate work conducted by assistants subordinate to me. I also assisted in making decisions as to whether our office would initiate an appeal on behalf of the Commonwealth.

15. Have you ever held public office other than judicial office? If so, give details, including the office involved, whether elected or appointed, and the length of your services, giving dates:

Yes. Assistant District Attorney and Chief Deputy District Attorney, 1998-2013. I also held elected positions in the Republican Party but believe these positions do not constitute "public office".

16. Have you ever been an unsuccessful candidate for elective, judicial, or other public office? If so, give details, including dates:

Yes. Hollidaysburg Area School Board. 1991

17. Have you ever been engaged in any occupation, business or profession other than the practice of law or the holding of judicial or other public office? If so, give details, including dates:

While a student in high school and college, I worked in numerous jobs including factory work, fast food, and other service work. Ironically, one of my first jobs was as a baseball umpire. After becoming an attorney, I became employed as an Adjunct Professor in the Criminal Justice/Sociology Department at Saint Francis University in Loretto, Pennsylvania. This employment began in 2009 and continues to this day. For a few years, I was also employed as a Professor in Saint Francis University's paralegal program.

In 2001, while a member of the executive board of the Blair County Republican Party, I, along with other members of the Board, was sued in a Declaratory Judgment action. In 2004, a dispute between a roofing company and myself and another property owner in my townhouse complex resulted in litigation over the cost of services. The litigation for which I was a party was settled amicably in 2005.

25. Have you ever been disciplined or cited for a breach of ethics or unprofessional conduct or has any complaint against you been filed with the Court of Judicial Discipline? If so, give the particulars:

32. List any honors, prizes, awards or other forms of recognition which you have received (including any indication of academic distinction in college or law school) other than those mentioned in answers to the foregoing questions.

In addition to answer 7, I also received a partial academic scholarship after my first year in law school for my academic standing. In 2010, I received a Certificate of Appreciation from the Blair County Bar Association for my participation in a Pro Bono Program
