

2010 Lackawanna Pro Bono Recognition Reception

Lackawanna Pro Bono held its annual Recognition Reception to thank and honor its pro bono volunteers, donors and other supporters at Coopers' Seafood Restaurant, Scranton, on Nov. 4, 2010. Sponsored by Penn Security Bank & Trust, the PNC Foundation, North Penn Bank, Fidelity Deposit & Discount Bank and Citizens Savings Bank, the event was attended by approximately 80 people, including Judge James M. Munley, Judge Chester T. Harhut, Judge Robert A. Mazzone, Judge S. John Cottone (retired), PBA President Gretchen A. Mundorff, PBA Pro Bono Coordinator David K. Trevaskis, PBA Member Services Director Elizabeth A. Kramer, 2010 Lackawanna Bar Association (LBA) President Gerard M. Karam, 2009 LBA President Joseph G. Price, 2011 LBA President Ann Lavelle Powell, Lackawanna Pro Bono President Carlene R. Gallo and Lackawanna Pro Bono Secretary/Treasurer Robert T. Gownley Jr.

Jim Thomas, president of the public relations firm of Thomas Communications Inc., is honored as a non-attorney at the reception in recognition of his firm's donating thousands of dollars of graphic design and public relations work for this year's Fundraising Gala. With Thomas is Sylvia Hahn, Lackawanna Pro Bono Inc. executive director.

PBA President Gretchen A. Mundorff with award recipient Mark J. Powell, accepting a 2010 PBA Pro Bono Award for his firm, Powell Law

- more -

PBA President Gretchen A. Mundorff with, from left, John Petorak, Christopher Szewczyk, Gerard M. Karam and Paul R. Mazzoni, accepting a 2010 PBA Pro Bono Award for their firm, Mazzoni, Karam, Petorak & Valvano

PBA President Gretchen A. Mundorff with, from left, Judge Robert A. Mazzoni, Judge Chester T. Harhut and PBA Pro Bono Coordinator David K. Trevaskis

PBA President Gretchen A. Mundorff with, from left, Kevin M. Conaboy, Michael J. Parker, James J. Conaboy, Edwin (Chip) A. Abrahamsen Jr. and Edwin (Ned) A. Abrahamsen, accepting a 2010 PBA Pro Bono Award for their firm, Abrahamsen, Conaboy & Abrahamsen

PBA President Gretchen A. Mundorff with, from left, PBA Member Services Director Elizabeth A. Kramer, Lackawanna Pro Bono Executive Director Sylvia Hahn and PBA Pro Bono Coordinator David K. Trevaskis

###