

“Child Advocacy: What do we know and what can we learn?”

Sponsored by:
Montgomery Child Advocacy Project &
Pennsylvania Pro Bono Office

Featuring:
David K. Trevaskis, Esquire &
Mary C. Pugh, Esquire

Monday April 4, 2011
9:00-12

Butler County Bar Association
201 South Main Street

3 hours CLE
$15
(Lunch included)

The Butler County Bar Association in conjunction with the Montgomery Child Advocacy Program (MCAP) and the Pennsylvania Bar Association Pro Bono Office will be presenting a special 3 hour learn @ lunch program on Monday, April 4, 2011 beginning promptly at 9:00 am.

This program will provide three (3) hours of substantive credit for all those who participate in the complete program. The cost of the program is $15 and includes lunch.

The program is designed to help counties serve children. In the seminar, MCAP and PBA Pro Bono presenters will review other ways to serve children either by court appointment or through a county office. The Pennsylvania Supreme Court is currently contemplating that all lawyers who represent children in these situations must attend pre-approved training seminars, so the seminar will also address and model the ways to train lawyers to serve as counsel for children.

In light of the developments in Luzerne County as well as the mandate in the Juvenile Act requiring counsel for children, this seminar serves as a review of the various ways counties appoint counsel and guardians ad litem for children with a brief review of what Butler County does.

Please register by contacting the
Butler County Bar Association

724.841.0130

butlercountybar@zoominternet.net