ABOUT US

Legal Aid of Southeastern Pennsylvania (LASP) is a private, non-profit corporation committed to delivering high quality free civil legal services to low income people, victims of domestic abuse and seniors living in Bucks, Montgomery, Chester and Delaware Counties.

There are two LASP offices within Bucks County. One in Bristol and one in Doylestown. There are two attorneys in the Bristol office and four attorneys in the Doylestown office.

The legal services provided to our clients include landlord/tenant disputes, public housing, utilities, consumer problems including foreclosures and sheriffs' sales, bankruptcy, denial or termination of government benefits such as welfare, Social Security and unemployment compensation, protection from abuse, custody, child dependency, and elder law issues. The Doylestown office only handles family court matters.

PRO BONO OPPORTUNITIES

Albert Einstein said, “In matters of truth and justice, there is no difference between large and small problems, for issues concerning the treatment of people are all the same”. This is the reason organizations like LASP exist but we cannot do it alone. Because we seek to help all who are eligible for our services, there are many times that we enlist the help of attorneys who are willing to volunteer their services through our pro bono program. To that end, we are in need of pro bono volunteers. If you have questions or are interested in volunteering please contact our Bucks County Pro Bono Coordinator, Barbara Kaner, Esquire at bkaner@lasp.org or 215-340-1818. If you are not currently volunteering, please give serious consideration to doing so. Your services would be greatly appreciated by both LASP and our clients.
