

Philadelphia SeniorLAW Center Celebrates Helpline, 2008

The Philadelphia SeniorLAW Center held a special program recently celebrating the SeniorLAW Helpline as well as its volunteers. PBA staff attorneys all participate in this program by taking cases from the SeniorLAW Helpline.

Shown below in the first photo are, left to right, Leah Raup, Laura McDonald, Kevin Delaney and Karen Buck, enjoying themselves at the reception following the training and service segments of the event. Leah and Kevin, both at Morgan, Lewis & Bockius, were trained that evening. Laura, who is currently at the law firm of Offit Kurman, has been volunteering with the Helpline for nearly two years. Karen is executive director of the SeniorLAW Center.

In the second photo, Joseph Delinger, an attorney at Saul Ewing L.L.P. who has been volunteering with the Helpline for nearly two years, handles a Helpline call while a newly trained volunteer observes.

