

Duquesne Law Students Available to Assist Pro Bono Attorneys, Oct. 2008

The Duquesne University School of Law Pro Bono Program coordinates volunteer opportunities for students with non-profit organizations and attorneys in the private sector who provide legal services to economically disadvantaged clients free of charge or for a substantially reduced fee. If you are a public-interest organization or licensed attorney interested in assistance from a law student volunteer for a pro bono matter, please contact duprobono@gmail.com or call the Pro Bono Office at (412) 396-1905.
