

The Administrative Law Section of the Pennsylvania Bar Association presents

Commonwealth Court Practicum:

Practices, Procedures and Perspectives from the Bench

Monday, April 9, 2018, 1:00 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Pennsylvania Judicial Center, En Banc Courtroom, 5th Floor, Harrisburg, PA

3 hours of CLE credits, including 1 hour of ethics*

*Attendees must remain for the entire program to qualify for the ethics credit.

The Administrative Law Section of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, in cooperation with the Pennsylvania Bar Institute and the Commonwealth Court Historical Society, is pleased to announce this biennial program. Join fellow practitioners to learn from distinguished jurists and key court staff as you earn up to three credits of CLE, including an ethics credit. Learn how to perfect your written and oral advocacy before the court from President Judge Mary Hannah Leavitt, Judge Robert Simpson, Judge P. Kevin Brobson, Judge Patricia A. McCullough, Judge Michael H. Wojcik and Sr. Judge Bonnie Brigance Leadbetter.

Highlights include:

- The court's new public access policy
- Understanding the Chief Clerk and Prothonotary Offices
- Motions practice
- Perspectives from the bench on written and oral advocacy
- View a mock argument, including direct feedback from the bench.

Conclude the day by networking at an evening reception with judges, court staff and colleagues immediately following the program (4:30 – 6:00 p.m.).

Please complete and return the attached registration form with payment no later than March 29, 2018.

There is limited capacity so advanced registration is highly recommended.
