

ENVIRONMENTAL LAW FORUM
LAW STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE

SPONSORED BY THE PENNSYLVANIA BAR ASSOCIATION
ENVIRONMENTAL & ENERGY LAW SECTION

- What: Law Student Scholarships to the Environmental Law Forum
- When: April 11-12, 2018
- Where: Harrisburg Hilton & Towers
One North Second Street
(2nd & Market Streets)
Harrisburg, PA
- What is the ELF? The Environmental Law Forum is the premiere continuing legal education program for environmental attorneys in Pennsylvania. It attracts 250+ practicing attorneys and covers several environmental topics, including courses on oil and gas, mineral resources, water and air issues, the legal implications of climate change, and litigation updates. It is also home to the annual Environmental and Energy Law Section dinner, which is a “must attend” event for all environmental attorneys.
- Details: The Environmental & Energy Law Section of the Pennsylvania Bar Association sponsors scholarships for two students from each of Pennsylvania's nine law schools to attend the Environmental Law Forum.
- What's Included: Each scholarship includes free tuition to the two-day program, the Environmental & Energy Law Section Dinner on Wed. April 11, and hotel accommodations for the nights of April 10 and April 11 at the Harrisburg Hilton for those not living in the Harrisburg area. The scholarship also covers hotel parking and a mileage reimbursement for travel to Harrisburg.
- How to Apply: Contact your law school's career services office or environmental law professors. Each school will internally select two students for the scholarships. If your school prefers not to internally select students, you may submit your resume along with a short essay (250 words maximum) detailing what you hope to get out of attending the Environmental Law Forum to Andrew Bockis at andrew.bockis@saul.com.
- Deadline: Monday, March 6, 2018
- Questions? Contact Andrew Bockis at andrew.bockis@saul.com or (717) 257-7520.
