BY-LAWS OF THE SECTION OF WORKERS’ COMPENSATION LAW OF THE PENNSYLVANIA BAR ASSOCIATION
ARTICLE I

Name and Purpose

Section 1: This Section shall be known as the Section on Workers’ Compensation Law.

Section 2: The purpose of the Section on Workers’ Compensation Law shall be to bring together for an interchange of ideas, for an awareness of legislative change and appellate court interpretation and for mutual advantage, those members of the Pennsylvania Bar Association who are interested in the improvement, development and working of the law, both substantive and procedural, relating to workers’ compensation and other forms of employers’ liability.

ARTICLE II

Membership and Dues

Section 1: Any member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, upon request to the Secretary of the Association and upon payment of the Section dues in full for the current calendar year, shall be enrolled as a member of the Section.

Section 2: Annual Section dues shall be established by the Section Council and approved by the Board of Governors of the Pennsylvania Bar Association.

Section 3: Section dues shall be paid in advance each year on a calendar year basis. Any member whose dues shall be more than twelve months past due and who shall fail to make payment within one month after receipt of notice thereof by mail shall cease to be a member of the Section.
ARTICLE III

Officers and Council

Section 1: The officers of the Section shall be a Chair, a Chair-Elect, a Vice-Chair, a Secretary, a Treasurer and a Section Delegate.

Section 2: There shall be a Council which shall consist of the Immediate Past Chair of the Section, the Officers of the Section specified in Section 1 and fifteen elected members. All past Chairs of the Section except the Immediate Past Chair shall be ex-officio members of the Council and shall be entitled to notice of and right to attend all meetings of the Council and to participate in any discussions at Council meetings but shall not have the right to vote.

Section 3: Only members of the Section shall be entitled to serve as an Officer or on Council. Membership on Council shall be limited to no more than three Workers’ Compensation Judges and membership on the Council shall be limited to no more than two members of the Workers’ Compensation Appeal Board. A Council member’s status shall be determined at the time of their election and shall be presumed to continue for the remainder of their term.

Section 4: Elected members of Council shall not serve more than three consecutive terms.

Section 5: The Officers and members of the council shall be nominated and elected in the manner hereafter provided at each Annual Meeting of the Section. All Officers except the Section Delegate shall hold office for a one-year term beginning at the close of the Annual Meeting one year thereafter or when their successors have been elected and qualified. The Section Delegate shall hold office for a two-year term beginning at the close of the Annual Meeting at which he or she has been elected and ending at the close of the Annual Meeting three years thereafter or when their successors have been elected and qualified. The Chair shall not succeed himself or herself. Except as provided in Section 6, Council members shall hold office for three-year terms beginning at the close of the Annual Meeting at which they have been elected and ending at the close of the Annual Meeting three years thereafter or when their successors have been elected and qualified.

Section 6: By Amendment of the By-Laws adopted by the Council and approved by the Section at the 2007 Annual Meeting, the number of Council members was increased from twelve to fifteen. Accordingly, in addition to the three members of Council to be elected at the Annual Meeting, three additional Council members will be elected. After the election of the three additional Council members, they shall draw lots so that one shall serve for a one-year term, one shall serve a two-year term and one shall serve for a three-year term. Thereafter, five Council members shall be elected at each Annual Meeting for the terms specified in Section 5.
ARTICLE IV
Nomination and Election of Officers and Council

Section 1: At least ninety days before the first session of each Annual Meeting of the Section, the Chair shall appoint a Nominating Committee of at least three members of the Section to be chaired by the Immediate Past Chair. The Nominating Committee shall make and report nominations to the Section membership for Officers, except the Chair of the Section, and members of the Council to succeed those whose terms will expire at the close of the Annual Meeting and to fill vacancies existing for unexpired terms. The report shall be in writing and shall be submitted to the Chair of the Section at least forty-five days prior to the Annual Meeting. Other nominations may be made in writing by petition to the Chair of the Nominating Committee signed by fifteen members of the Section and received by the Chair of the Nominating Committee at least fifteen days prior to the Annual Meeting of the Section.

Section 2: All elections except for the election of the Section Delegate shall be at the Annual Meeting of the Section unless otherwise ordered by resolution duly adopted by the Section.

Section 3: The election of the Section Delegate shall be at the Annual Meeting in odd numbered years and for a term commencing and ending in accordance with and as otherwise provided by the By-Laws of the Pennsylvania Bar Association and Section 902 thereof.

Section 4: No person shall be nominated as Chair-Elect unless such person has been an Officer or a member of the Council.

Section 5: The Nominating Committee shall endeavor to nominate Section members so as to achieve a fair geographic distribution throughout the State. The Council, to the extent possible, should be diverse and evenly balanced between lawyers representing employees and employers.

ARTICLE V
Duties of Officers

Section 1: The Chair shall preside at all meetings of the Section and of the Council. He or she shall formulate and present at each Annual Meeting of the Pennsylvania Bar Association a report of the work of the Section for the past year. The Chair shall also represent the Section at the Pennsylvania Bar Association Mid-Year Meeting. The Chair shall be reimbursed by the Section for all expenses incurred in connection with attendance at the Mid-Year Meeting, including travel, hotel and meal expenses. He or she shall perform such other duties and acts as usually pertain to the office of Chair.
Section 2: The Chair-Elect shall, upon the expiration of the Chair’s term of office or upon the Chair’s death, resignation or inability to act, become Chair of the Section. In the event of the temporary absence or disability of the Chair, the Chair-Elect shall act as Chair for the period of absence or disability. The Chair-Elect shall perform any other functions designated by the Chair or the Council.

Section 3: The Vice-Chair shall be in charge of promoting and maintaining membership in the Section, serving on and chairing any Committees which the Chair shall specify and shall otherwise aid the Chair in the proper functioning of the Section.

Section 4: The Secretary shall be the custodian of all books, papers, documents and other property of the Section. He or she shall keep a true record of the proceeding of all meetings of the Section and of the Council, whether assembled or acting under submission.

Section 5: The Treasurer will keep appropriate records of all receipts and all expenses of the Section. At each Annual Meeting of the Section, he or she shall make a report of the financial status of the Section and a statement of any balance on hand which will be carried into the ensuing year.

Section 6: The Chair and the Treasurer shall be empowered to sign requisitions upon the Pennsylvania Bar Association treasury for disbursement of Section funds.

ARTICLE VI

Duties of Council

Section 1: The Council shall have general supervision and control of the affairs of the Section subject to the provisions of the By-Laws of the Pennsylvania Bar Association and the By-Laws of the Section. It shall authorize or approve all commitments or contracts which shall entail the payment of money and shall authorize or approve the expenditure of all moneys appropriated for the use or benefit of the Section.

Section 2: The Council or the Chair may appoint Committees of Section members to perform any duties and to exercise any powers which the Council may direct, subject to the limitations of the By-Laws of the Pennsylvania Bar Association and they By-Laws of the Section.

Section 3: The Council, during the interim between Annual Meetings of the Section, may fill vacancies in its own membership or among the Officers.

Section 4: All actions of the Council shall be by a vote of a majority of the voting members of the Council, which vote may be taken by mail, electronic mail, or telephone conference vote, after due notice to all members of the Council.
Section 5: Voting members of the Council not present at a meeting of the Council may communicate their vote in writing upon any proposition to the Secretary and have their vote counted with the same effect as if the voting member of the Council was present at the meeting of the Council.

ARTICLE VII

Meetings

Section 1: An Annual Meeting of the Section shall be held in the same place at the same time as the Annual Meeting of the Pennsylvania Bar Association. The program and order of business of the Annual Meeting of the Section shall be as arranged by the Chair and approved by the Council.

Section 2: Special, adjourned or telephone conference meetings of the Section may be called by the Chair upon approval of the Council or in accordance with the provisions of the By-laws of the Pennsylvania Bar Association. Special, adjourned or telephone conference meetings shall be held at places and times determined by the Council.

Section 3: The members of the Section present at any meeting constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.
