TO CIVILITY AND BEYOND: Elevating Civility and Professionalism within the Bench and Bar

How can judges and lawyers ensure that civility in the legal profession does not become a relic of the past?

Join our distinguished panel of judges and lawyers as they take an honest look at the current state of civility and professionalism in the legal profession and discuss ways in which the bench and bar play a vital role in promoting civility in and out of the courtroom and related issues of attorney well-being and mentoring.

Discuss:

- Appropriate conduct in mediation and arbitration
- Strategies for dealing with difficult counsel, clients, and witnesses
- Well-being and mental health in the profession
- The pending Rule 8.4(g) prohibiting harassment and discrimination in the practice of law
- And more!

Panelists include:

- Hon. C. Darnell Jones, II
  U.S. District Court, Eastern District of PA
- Hon. William C. (“Chip”) Mackrides
