THE PENNSYLVANIA BAR CENTER
The Pennsylvania Bar Center is a dream of nearly thirty years come true. In 1946 a special committee was appointed to investigate the acquisition and financing of a suitable home for the Association. The Pennsylvania Bar Association Endowment was then organized to solicit and receive contributions and to acquire and own the building. After a successful campaign for funds the Endowment purchased the Front Street portion of the Maclay Mansion, a three story stone dwelling on the river front in Harrisburg. Eighteen months later, on January 5, 1950, it was formally dedicated as the headquarters and home of the Pennsylvania Bar Association. In 1967, the Endowment was dissolved and its assets, including the premises, were transferred to the Pennsylvania Bar Association.

The Maclay Mansion, recently designated a national historical site, was originally erected in 1791 as the home of William Maclay, a devoted Jeffersonian and a member of the first U.S. Senate. Its walls are indigenous to the soil of its locale—Pennsylvania limestone. It was completely restored and renovated in 1908, when the Bailey family, its owners, added a wing on the north and east sides without compromising the architectural character and charm of the premises.

The sweeping Pennsylvania Bar Association reorganization of 1966 created the need for additional space to house the professional and administrative staff. Mr. & Mrs. George R. Bailey graciously gave the Association a "right-of-first-refusal" before disposing of their wing. In 1971, the Pennsylvania Bar Association acquired the Bailey Wing. Fortuitously, in 1972, the adjoining Fleming home on South Street became available. It was purchased along with an adjacent deteriorated structure which was razed to provide much-needed parking space. The former Fleming property now houses the Pennsylvania Bar Institute, the educational arm of the Pennsylvania Bar Association.

Altogether, the total complex provides the essential components of a complete bar center—convenient and functional structures steeped in historical significance, replete with elegance and charm and dominated by a stately dignity worthy of the home of Pennsylvania lawyers.

Remarks:  Gilbert Nurick, Chairman, Pennsylvania Bar Center Committee

Presentation:  Mrs. Louis H. Artuso, President, Pennsylvania Association of Lawyers’ Wives

Dedication:  Honorable Benjamin R. Jones, Chief Justice of Pennsylvania

12:00 Noon  Reception—
Dauphin County Bar Association,
213 North Front Street,
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania
The Main Reception Area will be the greeting point of those who enter the Pennsylvania Bar Center. Thomas D. Caldwell, Esquire, began his practice in 1922. A widely known and respected trial lawyer, he was senior partner in the Harrisburg firm of Caldwell, Fox and Stoner. In 1949 he was appointed to serve on a PBA committee to investigate group insurance and was instrumental in developing and expanding this program, serving as a Trustee of the PBA Insurance Fund from its inception in 1949 until 1967. He made many significant contributions to his profession, including service as a Trustee of Dickinson School of Law, of which he was an alumnus. This reception area is dedicated to his memory by the Caldwell family.

The Visiting Attorney’s office will be for the use of attorneys visiting the Harrisburg area and will be furnished as a private office.

This memorial is gratefully inscribed to the memory of Horace Stern who was a brilliant lawyer, Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania and Chief Justice, by his law clerks who were inspired by his example and whose lives were enriched by their service with him.
The Schnader Lounge, furnished in memory of William A. Schnader, of Philadelphia, by the firm of Schnader, Harrison, Segal & Lewis, is provided for the use of lawyers and their clients as a comfortable and private place to confer and visit.

William A. Schnader (1886–1968) was the perfect symbol of a Pennsylvania lawyer, draftsman of the Commonwealth's Administrative Code and Fiscal Code, appointed by two Governors to be Attorney General, draftsman of the Philadelphia City Charter, President of the Pennsylvania Bar Association.

Yet his greatest achievements were national in scope. A founder of the American Law Institute, he became its First Vice President, a member of its Council and its Executive Committee. As President of the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws, he conceived of, arranged to finance and (through the A.L.I.) to produce, and finally personally marshalled the adoption in 49 States, of the Uniform Commercial Code. In 1960 he was awarded the Gold Medal of the American Bar Association.

But his interest returned constantly and devotedly to Pennsylvania. He was Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Franklin & Marshall College and later its Chancellor. And in his last years he became the architect and manager of the first new Constitution for Pennsylvania since 1873. His last working day (at age 81), two days before his death, was devoted to a conference on management of the successful Constitutional referendum that followed a few days after.
The Board Room is to be used principally for meetings of the Board of Governors and committees of the Pennsylvania Bar Association and the Pennsylvania Bar Institute. The adjoining Reception Room will be used by members during meeting recesses and as a waiting room.

In honoring Morton S. Klaus, Esquire, the firm of Blank, Rome, Klaus, and Comisky does no more than memorialize, tangibly, the respect and regard won by his lifetime of dedication to his profession. The complementing purposes of the two rooms—the serious business of the Boards and a place of relaxation—reflect the poles of his living personality. Morton S. Klaus was a recognized expert in Real Estate Law, distinguished not only for his brilliance, thoroughness, depth and diligence, but for his sensitivity and modesty. We are proud to record his achievements.
LIBRARY AND CONFERENCE ROOM

Fireplace detail, Library and Conference Room
This Library and Conference Room, containing basic legal texts, a conference area and a lounge area for reading and quiet study, was aided by a contribution from the Pittsburgh firm of Reed Smith Shaw & McClay, formerly Reed, Smith, Shaw & Beal (1902–1922) and originally Knox & Reed (1877–1902), in memory of two of its partners, Philander Chase Knox and Edwin Whittier Smith, each of whom served as President of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, Mr. Knox in 1896–1897 and Mr. Smith in 1910–1911.

Mr. Knox, a founder of the firm, was born in Brownsville, Pennsylvania, on May 6, 1853. A graduate of Mount Union College, he was admitted to the bar in 1875. He and James Hay Reed founded Knox & Reed in 1877. After a brilliantly successful career in private practice, he served as Attorney General of the United States from 1901 to 1904, as United States Senator from 1904 to 1909 and again from 1917 until his death in 1921. He was Secretary of State from 1909 to 1913.

Mr. Smith was born in Pittsburgh in 1857. A graduate of Yale University, he joined the firm in 1881, the year of his admission to the bar. He was a preeminent and formidable trial lawyer from the beginning to the end of his career. He was a leader of the bar, an inspiring preceptor to those younger lawyers who fell under his tutelage and a public speaker of great eloquence and humor. He served as director of many corporations and as a delegate of the United States to the International Conference on Maritime Law in 1909. He characterized himself as "one who has loved his profession".
MAIN STAIRWELL

Bannister detail, Main Stairwell
The Main Stairwell of the Pennsylvania Bar Center will contain portraits of a number of distinguished national, state and local leaders of the bar.

The partners of Morgan, Lewis and Bockius are privileged to dedicate the Stairwell Gallery of the Pennsylvania Bar Center to the memory of two of the firm's most distinguished members: William Clarke Mason and Arthur Littleton. Each was President of the Pennsylvania Bar Association (1943 and 1956); each was Chancellor of the Philadelphia Bar Association (1940 and 1950); and each in his time was the Senior Partner of Morgan, Lewis and Bockius.

The Citation covering the award of the Prestigious Gold Medal of the American Bar Association to Mr. Mason in 1957 noted his love of justice, devotion to the law, tenacity of purpose and skill in the art of advocacy and acknowledged that: "He has given not some of his time, but a lifetime, to the enhancement of the legal profession."

Of Mr. Littleton, on the occasion of his election as Chancellor of the Philadelphia Bar Association, a colleague wrote: "He in a unique way tempers a brilliant mind and a tremendous energy with the dignity of a quiet simplicity... a public spirited citizen, able administrator, sound lawyer, staunch friend, and—in the best sense—a good man."

"Let us now praise famous men and our fathers that begot us..."
This Conference Room, contributed in memory of Sterling G. McNees, Esq., will be available to lawyers for many and diverse functions such as the taking of depositions, the holding of conferences and small committee meetings.

Sterling G. McNees compiled a record so impressive and so replete with dedicated services to his profession, his community, his country and to society that it is difficult to compress even the highlights into a brief inscription.

He served in many important posts in the Pennsylvania Bar Association. He was Chairman of the Statutory Law Committee, Chairman of the Public Relations Committee, founder and Chairman of the Administrative Law Committee and Chairman of the Special Advisory Committee on Legislation.

For his many and varied services to the profession throughout the years, he was rewarded with election to the presidency of the Pennsylvania Bar Association in 1936, an honor and responsibility which he discharged with dedication and distinction.

Through this memorial, the partners of McNees, Wallace & Nurick, as a tangible expression of their affection and esteem for the founder of the firm, commemorate the name of Sterling G. McNees, Esq.
