IMPORTANT NOTICE

Please read and follow the examination guidelines and procedures provided below.

IN FAIRNESS TO ALL APPLICANTS AND TO MAINTAIN THE INTEGRITY AND SECURITY OF THE WORKERS’ COMPENSATION LAW SECTION SPECIALTY CERTIFICATION EXAMINATION, THE FOLLOWING RULES/RESTRICTIONS WILL BE STRICTLY ENFORCED DURING THE EXAMINATION. VIOLATIONS MAY RESULT IN DISQUALIFICATION.

The examination will be given on Friday, March 11, 2022 from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at PBA Headquarters, 100 South St. and at no other locations. This is the ONLY examination opportunity in 2022. No make-up examination is available. If your application has been approved and you have not previously deferred taking the examination and are not able to sit for the examination on this date, your application will be kept on file until the next examination date.

Applicants are NOT permitted to have in the examination room:
Cell phones, computers of any type, headsets of any kind, bags, purses, backpacks, briefcases, computer cases, study materials, iPods, PDAs, calculators, alarm watches, or any other electronic or programmable devices, etc. Any device that emits noise during the examination will be confiscated by PBA staff.

PLEASE LEAVE ALL VALUABLES AT HOME OR IN YOUR CAR. THE PBA IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR THE SECURITY OF YOUR PERSONAL ITEMS.

Examination site Check-in Information:
- Applicants should arrive at the examination site between 8:00 a.m. and 8:30 a.m. to check-in so that the examination may begin promptly at 9:00 a.m.
- Applicants are required to show government issued photo identification at check-in.

An anonymous identifying number will be provided for test taking purposes. Your name will not be identified on your examination answers – multiple choice nor essay. This will ensure anonymous scoring of both portions of the examination.

Requests for special examination accommodations must be made in advance. Please call or email requests by March 9, 2021, to Tameka Altadonna at phone: 800-932-0311 ext. 2280 or email: Tameka.Altadonna@pabar.org.

If you are approached by one of the examination site proctors, you agree to answer the proctor’s questions and/or surrender any materials that the proctor requests or disqualification may result.
