C CBL President Jill Scheidt invites you to come swing with us in the Roaring 20s at the 54th Annual Conference of County Bar Leaders, our annual leadership education conference. So put on your “Ground Grippers” and join us at the conference at The Hotel Hershey®, Feb. 27-29, 2020.

The keynote speaker, Dr. Lewis Losoncy, is sure to inspire and entertain you. Attend and learn from experienced presenters in more than 15 scheduled meetings and CLE sessions covering topics such as handling member misconduct, preparing for your year as president, diversity and suffrage in 1920 and 2020, protecting your bar association and firm from hacking, running efficient and meaningful meetings, engaging future members, the legal process, avoiding legal malpractice, interacting with the media, enhancing resiliency for good mental health, a roundtable for a healthy exchange of ideas with bar leaders and executives ... and more!

So jazz it up by attending the CCBL conference. Bring your 1920s attire and attend our speakeasy Friday night – with great music and more conversation with your colleagues in a fun atmosphere! Since it’s a speakeasy, you’ll need the secret code phrase for admission: CCBL Rocks!

Remember to start preparing for those CCBL awards nominations to open up in December. For descriptions of the awards, County Bar Recognition Awards and the Birdsall, Flaherty and Nurick awards, go to https://www.pabar.org/site/For-the-Public/CCBL/Awards.
PBA President Anne N. John named 11 Pennsylvania lawyers to the 2019-20 class of the association’s Bar Leadership Institute (BLI). The BLI was originally developed to strengthen the PBA’s ongoing efforts to recruit and develop leaders of the association. Its current purpose is to inform participants on the day-to-day operations, governance, resources and staffing of the association, as well as provide introductions to its various leadership opportunities.

The BLI class was limited in size. To apply, candidates had to demonstrate leadership ability, commit to attendance and participation in the required events, be currently licensed to practice law in Pennsylvania, be a PBA member, and be age 40 years or younger or have practiced five years or less.

This year’s BLI co-chairs were Philip H. Yoon, Superior Court of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, and Stephanie F. Latimore, Legislative Reference Bureau of Pennsylvania, Harrisburg. Both Yoon and Latimore have served in a number of PBA leadership roles.

“As a bar leader, there’s nothing more fulfilling than watching young lawyers flourish as they develop professionally, connect and create a community throughout the commonwealth to share experiences and learn more about the PBA’s varied paths to leadership through the BLI program. I look forward to working with these future leaders of the PBA and the profession.”

The Inaugural Flying of Veteran Casket Flags by DCVMA and DCBA

The Third Annual Delaware County Veterans Memorial Association (DCVMA) Flying of Veteran Casket Flags was held Oct. 13, 2019 by the Military and Veterans Service Affairs Committee of the Delaware County Bar Association, in conjunction with the Delaware County Veterans Memorial Association (DCVMA). The ceremony included legendary names from the legal community and their friends, who shaped Delaware County following their heroic efforts in their military service.

The distinguished careers of those recognized were recounted by special guest Pennsylvania State Representative Chris Quinn and representatives of the Delaware County Bar Association, Richard A. Mitchell, Esq., U.S. Army Military Police Corp, and Daniel C. Van Wyk, Esq., retired brigadier general from Air National Guard, Global War on Terrorism, Desert Storm.

Those recognized represent the embodiment of what they lived and breathed every day of their lives. They stood up for country in their service as veterans and continued their dedication to the notion of service in the field of law. We will be forever grateful to them and to all the veterans who have served our country.

Raising a flag in their honor reminds each of us to be better versions of ourselves and to serve country and the greater good. Veteran flags were accepted by family members and colleagues of:

- Oliver C. Armitage, Friend of the DCBA: U.S. Navy, WWII
- Hon. William Toal: U.S. Army, Germany, First Lieutenant, 97th Signal Battalion
- Hon. James Gorbey: U.S. Marine Corps, WWII
- Garland D. Cherry: U.S. Air Force, radio operator and tech instructor for the 525th Air Base Squadron

The Delaware County Bar Association and the Military and Veterans Service Committee of the Association is committed to this annual recognition honoring Association members and their friends, who have served and who have passed on.

There is nothing more thought-provoking than to watch the sun set as taps plays & Old Glory is lowered for the evening.

The Military and Veterans Service Affairs Committee of the Delaware County Bar Association include: Richard A. Mitchell, Esq., co-chair; Carmen P. Belefonte, Esq., co-chair; Thomas L. Kelly, Esq.; Colleen M. Neary, Esq.; Barry W. Van Rensler, Esq.; Daniel C. Van Wyk, Esq.; Abbey Varga; and Tracy E. Price, DCBA Marketing.

The Military and Veterans Service Committee of the Delaware County Bar Association was formed as a vehicle through which its members who have served our country may be recognized, both those who have passed and those who are still with us, and to honor all of those who have served our country.

ACBA Honors Davis, Newspapers at MLK Event
More than 200 people attended the ACBA’s 20th Annual Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Prayer Breakfast and Program. At the event, the ACBA honored Larry E. Davis – Director of the Center on Race and Social Problems at the University of Pittsburgh School of Social Work – with the 2019 Drum Major for Justice Award. Additionally, the Pittsburgh Courier and New Pittsburgh Courier newspapers were recognized with the special Legacy Award by the ACBA’s Homer S. Brown Division for providing over a century of service through timely and relevant coverage of issues of importance to the African-American community in Pittsburgh and across the United States.

26 Women Graduate from WILL
The Allegheny County Bar Association Institute for Gender Equality launched the Women’s Institute for Leadership in Law (WILL) last year, and the first cohort of 26 women attorneys graduated from the program in December. Through a partnership with Carnegie Mellon University, the WILL program is designed to develop future women leaders in the profession. Plans are in the works for the second WILL cohort later this year.

Erie

Northwestern High School Wins Region 2/District 2 Mock Trial Competition!
Congratulations to the Northwestern students, their teacher coach, Jeff Wolford, and their attorney advisors, ECBA members Molly Anglin, Nick Maskrey and Doug Sullivan, all from the Erie County District Attorney’s Office. Their team represented our district in the State Mock Trial Competition at the end of March. Special thanks to Mock Trial Coordinator Stacey Baltz and all members of the ECBA who volunteered to serve as judges, jurors and timekeepers throughout the competition.

Howard Fineman: Keynote 2019 Annual Law Day Luncheon
The Erie County Bar Association’s Annual Law Day Luncheon featured Howard Fineman as the keynote speaker.
Howard Fineman is an admired journalist and political commentator who is able to tap into unrivaled knowledge of the political and media landscapes. His decades-long journalistic experience is wide-ranging, having covered seven presidents and reported in depth on the most recent five, including Donald Trump and Barack Obama.
He is known for his wit as well as his work and addressed this year’s Law Day theme, “Free Speech. Free Press. Free Society.”
Immediately prior to the event, Fineman met informally with about 125 local high school and university students in a Q&A session.

Wilkes-Barre Law & Library Association Summer Outing

PBA President-elect David E. Schwager, Esq., along with PBA Zone 5 Governor James P. Valentine, Esq. and PBA Past President Francis X. O’Connor, Esq. attended the July Summer Outing & Charity Golf Tournament of the Wilkes-Barre Law & Library Association, held at the Fox Hill Country Club. The tournament portion of the Outing to raises money for the association’s charitable foundation, which in turn makes donation grants to registered 501(c)(3) charities in the area. Since its creation in 2003, the foundation has raised and donated more than $250,000 to local area charities.

This year’s outing was attended by a large array of past presidents of the association. To commemorate this gathering, a photograph was taken of the past presidents with the current bar officers and the special guests from the Pennsylvania Bar Association.

Hon. Joseph M. Cosgrove (ret.), Daniel G. Flannery, Robert D. Schaub, Shelia L. Saidman, James P. Valentine (PBA Zone 5 Governor), Elaine Cook, Richard M. Goldberg, Jane M. Acri (president), David E. Schwager (PBA president-elect), Catherine R. O’Donnell (vice president), Francis X. O’Connor (PBA past president), Michael I. Butera, Joseph P.J. Burke III (treasurer/secretary) and Judge Joseph F. Saporito Jr.

Montoursville Mock Trial Team Receives Support from Foundation

The Montoursville Area High School Mock Trial team has been active in the local mock trial competition for many years. The team is always competitive and has won the district event and competed statewide on several occasions.

Recently the team applied for a LLA Foundation grant to pay the costs of advanced training for the team members. The foundation awarded $2,000 to cover part of the costs to be incurred. The team raised additional costs with various fundraisers, including Fort Muncy Garden Center certificates, Walmart burger burn and a rummage sale. The team will have a bounce house at the Montoursville Fall Festival and cotton candy stand to earn additional funds.

In November, the team will travel to New England to attend the Harvard Seminar for High School Mock Trial. This is a weekend-long seminar on Mock Trial skill building run by the Harvard Mock Trial Association.

Lycoming

Wills for Heroes: Our Way of Giving Back

Lycoming Law Association held its fifth annual Wills for Heroes event, where local law firms offered their services free of charge to both first responders and military veterans. The event was sponsored by the LLA in partnership with the PBA.

Each client meets with an attorney and leaves with notarized estate documents. This year, we served approximately 60 clients.

Lycoming Law Association Foundation awarded $2,000 to the Montoursville Area High School toward advanced training for the Mock Trial competition.
The seminar is focused upon developing opening and closing statements, direct, crosses and enhancing witness performances. The weekend culminates with a scrimmage against other teams. The workshop is divided between novice teams and experienced teams. Montoursville qualifies for the advanced seminar due to the number of years they have been competing.

The LLA and its membership has supported the Mock Trial program for many years. The program encourages interest by high school students in the legal field and promotes the positive aspects of our profession. Montoursville’s program has promoted the legal field and instilled in its students logical thinking and taught methods that will serve the students well, whether or not they enter the legal field.

MCBA’s 2019 Law Day

Hillary Madden, Law Day chair, honored students for their exceptional creativity projects. This year’s theme was “Free Speech, Free Press, Free Society.” Award winners included Pocono Mountain West High School students: Aaliyah Rojas for her first-place poem, “Freedom of Speech;” Jason Walker for his second-place poem, "Our Voice;” and Shaterra Robinson for her third-place “Law Day Essay.” Stroudsburg High School students, Brendyn Lechene and Mackenzie Williams, both received honorable mention certificates for their inspiring and thought-provoking paintings.

William Reaser, chair of the Monroe County Bar Foundation, awarded multiple scholarships to graduating students. Allison Bone, Pocono Mountain East High School, was the recipient of the Judge Ronald E. Vican Memorial Scholarship. Scholarships were also awarded to Christian Bethea, Pocono Mountain East School; Megan Gawron, Pleasant Valley High School; Kaitly Lichtenstein, East Stroudsburg High School South; and Megdalen Trunfio, Stroudsburg High School.

MBA Leadership Academy Celebrates Its 5th Anniversary

Current participants and graduates of the MBA’s Leadership Academy recently gathered with officers, judicial mentors and other supporters to celebrate the fifth anniversary of this innovative program. The academy was initiated to develop next-generation leadership and to foster ongoing engagement within the association and valuable relationships among its participants. Blessed from the start with an impressive group of visionaries and supporters, an advisory group was formed to lay the groundwork and, in the first year, a leadership consultant was retained to plan and lead a series of workshops and events for the first class of participants. Soon after the program’s launch, a leadership coordinator, who had been teaching leadership and personal development at Arcadia University, was hired to coordinate and further develop the program. This individual would also be charged with coordinating the MBA’s access to justice efforts and other leadership directives.

The program has since evolved to include workshops and events focusing on topics such as communication, motivation, self-awareness, goal-setting and networking. Today, a one-on-one component exists, where participants meet with the MBA’s leadership coordinator to discuss their goals in the context of their strengths, styles and challenges; a component which pairs participants with judicial mentors who provide advice, guidance, and a unique opportunity to connect with members of the bench on a more personal level; and a popular “Evening with the Judges,” which starts with a private roundtable discussion between participants and a federal judge, Hon. Mark A. Kearney, then moves to a panel discussion with members of the Court of Common Pleas and ends with a reception, where participants enjoy a unique networking opportunity. Through the project component of the program, academy members provide insights and ideas which have had a significant impact on the Bar, including improvements to our Access to Justice Program, the formation of a very active Solo and Small Firm Committee, enhancements to our diversity efforts and the development of new ways to reach and engage millennial members. This year’s academy members will serve as mentors for the MBA’s Robert E. Slota Jr. Summer 1L Diversity students, who will be tasked with creating a unique pro bono project of their own, focusing on reentry issues in Montgomery County.

Current and previous Leadership Academy members have embraced and conquered the goals of the program. Seventy-five percent of the attorneys from the past four classes have gone on to hold positions of leadership within the MBA, serving as officers, directors and committee or section chairs. Of course, all now serve in positions of leadership within their own firms, communities and other organizations. Clearly, this group of impressive individuals represents all that is special about the MBA: leadership, intellect, service, diversity and collegiality. In addition to these accomplishments, academy members have created deep and ongoing relationships with people they likely would not have come to know but for their participation in the program. Upon these relationships, the program and the MBA has grown and will continue to grow, regardless of what changes and challenges are thrown our way.

As the MBA prepared to mark this milestone, the importance of capitalizing on the energy, diversity of perspective, insight and connectedness of this special group became clear. Accordingly, with the Fifth Anniversary Celebration came the announcement of the formation of the MBA Leadership Academy Alumni Council. The creation of this group will allow MBA leaders to more regularly solicit the perspectives and opinions of its members on issues significant to the bar and to give them more opportunities to reap the benefits of belonging to such a diverse and impressive group.

Susquehanna

Pro Bono Award and Wills for Heroes in Susquehanna County

Past PBA President and Susquehanna County Wills for Heroes Coordinator Frank O’Connor and Gabriele Miller-Wagner, regional Wills for Heroes coordinator, presented legal secretary Debra Oakes with a PBA Pro Bono Partner Award during a Wills for Heroes event held in Montrose, where nearly 30 veterans were served. Oakes was honored for being a driving force for the county program, helping to schedule and organize each event from start to finish.

Wills for Heroes, a program of the PBA Young Lawyers Division, was sponsored in Susquehanna County by Susquehanna County Bar Association, Peoples Security Bank, The Community Foundation of the Endless Mountains and the PBA.

Westmoreland

Westmoreland Attorney Recognized for Professionalism

Recognized for his dedication to the practice of law, service to his profession and his integrity and civility as a lawyer, David S. DeRose was awarded the President’s Award for Professionalism at the Annual Westmoreland Bar Association Membership meeting.

DeRose, an associate in the Greensburg law firm of Quattrini Rafferty, is a graduate of Pennsylvania State University and Duquesne University School of Law. He concentrates his practice in estate planning and administration, elder law and real estate.
Bar Foundation and 32-year chair of the Building Committee. He was a founding board member of the Lawyers Abstract Company of Westmoreland County. At the state level, DeRose is currently on the PBA House of Delegates.

DeRose serves his community as a board member of the Latrobe Area Hospital Charitable Foundation, Adams Memorial Library in Latrobe and Redstone Highlands Senior Care. Additionally, he serves on the Excela Health Golden Hour Committee, whose purpose is to educate on the importance of a quick medical response to the symptoms of a heart attack, and on the Citizen Advisory Committee to the Union Mission of Latrobe.

York

Reflections at Journey’s End: A Compilation of Memorial Minutes from 1850 – 2017 is available as a four-volume set or individual books. J. Ross McGinnis, who, at 90, is the oldest practicing member of the York County Bar, has been working on the compilation for a number of years. The Memorial Minute records have been in the prothonotary’s office, the York County archives and other locations. He says the Memorial Minute “started out as a Resolution of Respect on March 11, 1850 for Judge Charles A. Barnitz.” That, McGinnis notes for historic perspective, “was 11 years before the start of the Civil War.”

In his introduction to the books, McGinnis explains the terminology. “We define ‘minute’ as the single resolution or opening statement. When observations or comments are added, the more inclusive term ‘memorial’ is used.”

Victoria Connor joined the York County Bar Association as CEO in 2011. “Judge Clarence Patterson’s death was my introduction to the Memorial Minute,” she recalls. “Judge (John) Uhler suggested we do something with the Memorial Minutes because of the huge history contained in them.” An intern at the bar association began the process of gathering them. That took a backseat to some other initiatives but was revived a few years ago with McGinnis as the lead person.

Research turned up the 240 Memorial Minutes, including the first one for a woman member of the bar association, Mary Jane Yohe, in 1954. A total of six women have been so memorialized, either attorneys or honorary members of the bar association.

McGinnis’ research uncovered some other information. He discovered the York County Bar Association was founded earlier than expected: Jan. 31, 1881, not 1898, as originally thought. It was chartered in 1898 and incorporated in 1946.

The stories contained in the volumes provide “a very fine compilation and reflect insight to the character of outstanding people in York County,” McGinnis states. “In addition, they’re unique portrayals of how members of the bar dealt with the final issue of life, which is death.” He adds, “Death causes us to look back and see how bright a life has been.”

Victoria Connor sees the “full set of interest to historians” and “individual volumes of great interest to the family members” of those memorialized. McGinnis proudly states, “All this information was in the archives and now it is being shared with the community.”

The lives and memories of those who went before them should be an inspiration to the 503 current members of the bar association, as well as the entire York community.

Reflections at Journey’s End: A Compilation of Memorial Minutes from 1850 – 2017 is available as a four-volume set or individual books, in hard cover or paperback, as well as e-reader formats. There is a special one-time offer of a discounted price (a 30-40% savings) on orders for all four volumes, via the York County Bar Association (to be delivered to YCBA and picked up by customers): set of four soft-cover - $65; set of four hard cover - $120. To order, email info@yorkbar.com or call 717-854-8755. Customers must pick up the books at the YCBA office, 137 E. Market St., York. To purchase individual volumes and e-reader versions direct from publisher visit https://www.balboapress.com/en/bookstore and enter the title in the search function.
