

Pennsylvania Bar Foundation Nominating Committee Seeks Officer and Zone Director Nominations for 2019 Elections

The Pennsylvania Bar Foundation Nominating Committee will meet in April 2019 to make nominations for president, vice president, treasurer, secretary and Zone Directors representing Zones 8, 9, 10 and 11. The position of vice president is eligible to serve three one-year terms. The positions of treasurer and secretary have no term limits. The Zone Directors positions of are eligible to serve a maximum of two consecutive three-year terms.

Jeffrey M. Bower, the current president, is serving his second term and is eligible for re-nomination. Samuel D. Miller III, the current vice president, is serving his second term and is eligible for re-nomination. Larry Coploff, the current treasurer and Christine Hall McClure, the current secretary are both eligible for re-nomination. Zone 8 Director Ralph Trofino is serving his second term as a Zone Director and is ineligible for re-nomination. Zone 9 Director Kim D. Morton, Zone 10 Director Michael B. Jones and zone 11 Director Kelly Mroz are all serving their first 3-year terms and are eligible for re-nomination.

The powers and duties of the Foundation Officers are set forth in Article V., Sections 5.4 – 5.7 of the Foundation's bylaws. Additional duties and expectations of all members of the Board are outlined in the "Board Member Commitment and Expectations" document available from Foundation headquarters in Harrisburg.

Interested candidates should send a cover letter and resume by April 1 to Tyrone A. Powell, Chair Pennsylvania Bar Foundation Nominating Committee, P.O. Box 186 Harrisburg, PA 17108-0186.