____ Pennsylvania Bar Foundation – PA IOLTA Loan Repayment Assistance Program (“LRAP”)

Law school debt is the number one reason attorneys either fail to enter or to remain in public service careers. To help overcome this obstacle, the PA Bar Foundation and the PA IOLTA Board launched a loan repayment assistance program for attorneys employed by IOLTA-funded civil legal services organizations in September 2010. The program provides forgivable loans to help eligible public interest attorneys better manage their law school loan debt. Though funded primarily through a pro hac vice fees, the Foundation is committed to raising funds to expand the reach and scope of the program.

___ Pro Bono Fund

Designate your contribution to support the Foundation's pro bono grant stream. Funding supports the Annual Pro Bono Conference, the statewide educational and networking forum hosted by the Pennsylvania Bar Association.

___ James W. Stoudt Memorial Scholarship Fund

Named after one of the Foundation's most devoted supporters, the James W. Stoudt Memorial Scholarship program provides two scholarships to each of the accredited law schools presently serving Pennsylvania, one of which is specifically designated for support of a minority law student. The scholarships are provided on an annual basis and are awarded based upon the following criteria: academic achievement, financial need, and the potential for making a contribution to society and the legal profession either through anticipated legal field or other efforts.

___ Honorariums & Memorials

Celebrating? Recognizing? Commemorating? Remembering? Appreciating? Sympathizing? Thanking? Congratulating? Whatever the occasion, the next time you need to express your support to friends, colleagues or family do it with a donation to the Pennsylvania Bar Foundation.

___ Unrestricted Contribution
