

Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee

2019 16th Annual Sir Francis Bacon Dispute Resolution Award

The Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee of the Pennsylvania Bar Association is seeking nominations for the Sixteenth Annual Sir Francis Bacon Dispute Resolution Award. This Award is given for excellence in alternative dispute resolution. The Award will be given at the Annual Meeting Award Luncheon on May 16, 2019.

Sir Francis Bacon (1561-1626) was a Renaissance writer and served British monarchs in a legal capacity as knight, attorney general and solicitor. He is also regarded as an author and philosopher. Sir Francis Bacon is the author of the essay “Of Negotiating.” The opening line from this short essay is frequently quoted: “It is generally better to deal by speech than by letter, and by the mediation of a third than by a man’s self.”

Each nominee must satisfy the following criteria:

1. Must be an individual who excels in the area of alternative dispute resolution in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and
2. Must have had a significant professional impact in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the area of alternative dispute resolution.

The Nomination Deadline is February 8, 2019. *PLEASE NOTE: If you desire to nominate a previously nominated candidate, you can re-nominate by way of a letter with any additional new information relevant to the candidate.
