PBA Family Law Section Representatives Join Gov. Wolf at Ceremonial Bill Signing

Current and past chairs of the PBA Family Law Section and others joined Gov. Tom Wolf during his ceremonial signing of House Bill 380, which reduces the waiting period in unilateral, no-fault divorce proceedings from two years to one year. The PBA worked closely with Rep. Tarah Toohil, the sponsor of the bill, to advance the legislation.
