10. With respect to your practice:

a) What has been the general character of your practice, dividing it into periods with dates if its character has changed over the years?

For the large majority of my career I have been a litigator. I have a balanced mix of criminal and civil litigation experience. I have been a criminal prosecutor for approximately 12 years, and a civil litigator for approximately 8 years. I have also acted in a civil capacity as the assistant general counsel for West Chester University in the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education (PASSHE), where I also performed some litigation work in addition to contract review, compliance and employment law.

Criminal Prosecutor

2002 – 2012: Chester County District Attorney’s Office, West Chester, PA
   o Line prosecutor for several years
   o Specialized in Child Abuse prosecutions for 3 years
   o Specialized in Appellate defense for 3 years

   o Civil Rights and Employment litigation representing municipalities
   o General Counsel for educational institutions

   o Civil Rights litigation on behalf of State Employees
   o Employment litigation on behalf of Employer

General Counsel
2012 – 2015: West Chester University (PASSHE), West Chester, PA
- Reviewed and negotiated contracts on behalf of University;
- Advised various departments throughout University on various areas of law regarding system policies, federal regulatory law, state regulatory law;
- Worked in conjunction with outside counsel on zoning projects throughout campus;
- Worked in conjunction with Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General on litigation against the University;
- Litigated labor arbitrations for grievances submitted by employees.

b) Describe your typical clients and mention the areas, if any, in which you have concentrated your practice:

Given the diversity of my legal experience, which includes work as a civil litigator, prosecutor, and general counsel, I would not say that I have a “typical” client. As a prosecutor I was sworn to protect the citizens of the Commonwealth of PA and did not have clients in the traditional sense. Rather, I worked for the citizens of the Commonwealth to protect and advocate on behalf of victims of crime. In private practice, I generally defended municipalities in Civil Rights (§1983 cases) and employment matters. As a Deputy Attorney General in the Civil Division, I represented state employees in Civil Rights (§1983 cases) and employment matters. As a general counsel for West Chester University, I represented the university, its administrators, and employees.

11. With respect to the last five years:
   a) Did you appear in court regularly, occasionally, or not at all? If the frequency of your appearances in court has varied during this period, describe each such variance, giving the dates thereof:

   Generally speaking I would say that my court appearances for the past five years are consistent with general civil and criminal practice. In my role as a prosecutor since November 2019, I have appeared more regularly in court than I did in my civil practice from 2015 through 2019, but in my view that is largely consistent with the different nature of the two practices. I must note, however, that between March 2020 and June 2020, I made no appearances in court due to emergency orders that were put in place in all of the courts in which I practice as part of efforts to mitigate the spread of COVID-19.

   Although I did appear before judges in civil practice, my practice primarily involved an extensive motions practice, the taking of depositions, and extensive discovery leading up to trial.

b) What percentage of these appearances was in:

   1. Federal courts: 50%
   2. State courts of record: 50%
   3. Other courts: 0%
What percentage of your litigation was:

1. Civil: 75%

2. Criminal: 25%

c) State the number of cases in courts of record you tried to verdict or judgment (rather than settled), indicating whether you were sole counsel, chief counsel or associate counsel:

I have tried two civil cases to verdict in the past five years. In both cases I was the defense attorney. I have, however, had several cases that were dismissed at the summary judgment level where I was sole counsel and/or associate counsel. In all of these cases I was acting as defense counsel.

d) What percentage of these trials were:

1. Jury: 100% - 1 sole counsel, 1 co-counsel

2. Non-jury: 0

12. Summarize your experience in court prior to the last five years, indicating as to that period:

a) Whether your appearances in court were more or less frequent:

My court appearances as a prosecutor in the Chester County District Attorney’s Office from 2002 to 2012 were much more frequent than they have been during my past five years of civil practice. I was actually in Court on a daily basis from 2002 until 2005, and then again between 2007 until 2009, at which point I was assigned to the appellate division.

b) Any significant changes in the percentages stated in your answers to question 11(b), (c) and (e):

11(b) Fed'l court: 0%
   State Court: 100%

11(e) Criminal: 75%
   Civil: 25%

11(e) Jury: 70-80%
   Non-jury: 20-30%
c) Any significant changes in the number of cases per year in courts of record you tried to verdict or judgment (rather than settled), as sole counsel, chief counsel or associate counsel.

Yes. I tried significantly more trials as an assistant district attorney in the Chester County DA’s Office than at any time in my civil career. As a line prosecutor for several years, I was required to make daily court appearances and had a significant case list to work through on a bi-weekly basis. After being a line prosecutor I was appointed to the Child Abuse Unit, which required me to prosecute the entire matter from disclosure/investigation to trial.

13. Describe five of the most significant litigated matters which you personally handled and give the citations thereto, if the cases were reported. Give a capsule summary of the substance of each case and a succinct statement of what you believe to be the particular significance of the case. Identify the party or parties whom you represented and describe in detail the nature of your participation in the litigation and the final disposition of the case. Also state as to each case a) the dates of the trial periods; b) the name of the court and the judge before whom the case was tried; and c) the individual name, address and telephone numbers of co-counsel for each of the other parties;

1. Commonwealth v. William Bresnahan: Court of Common Pleas Chester County (Case No. 2631-2003). Conviction obtained in January 2005 in the Chester County Court of Common Pleas. Verdict upheld 938 A.2d 1109 (Pa. Super. 2007). Appeal denied 596 Pa. 739 (2008). I represented the Commonwealth as the sole prosecutor. After a six-day trial in front of the Honorable Howard F. Riley, the defendant was convicted of over 100 counts of Theft by Failure to Make Required Disposition of Funds for his participation in fraudulently fleecing charitable organizations out of donations to their organizations and selling donations to profit personally. Opposing counsel was Nathan Shenker who is the first assistant at the Chester County Public Defender’s Office located at 201 Market Street, West Chester, PA, (610) 344-6940.

2. Fisher v. King, et al: The Eastern District of Pennsylvania (Case No. 15-6134 2016 WL3940794 [unreported opinion]). Summary Judgment Motion granted on all claims in July 2016. As an attorney in private practice, I represented Assistant District Attorney Megan King, who was a prosecutor in Lancaster County, PA. A former criminal defendant brought claims against her and the lead detective for Fourth Amendment Violations. The Honorable Jeffrey Schmehl granted summary judgment in its entirety and dismissed the case. Opposing counsel was Jim Scanlon of Ridley, Chuff, Kosierowski and Scanlon, P.C., 400 Broad Street, Milford, PA 18337, (570) 296-5553; Co- counsel was Joshua Autry of Lavery, Faherty, 225 Market Street, Harrisburg, PA 17108, (717) 233-6633.

3. Randolph v. John Wetzel, et al. The Eastern District of Pennsylvania (Case No. 11-3396). Verdict upheld 764 Fed. Appx. 240, 3rd Cir. February 26, 2019 (unreported opinion). Jury trial conducted by the Honorable Eduardo C. Robreno. Jury dismissed all claims against the defendants, who were security guards with the Pennsylvania Department of Corrections that I represented through the PA Attorney General’s Office. The Plaintiff had brought claims of Eighth Amendment violations by the guards claiming he was paralyzed as a result of their assault. A treating physician testified that several tests that were conducted showed that the Plaintiff was faking his paralysis. I was co-counsel with my colleague Kathy Le, PA Office of the Attorney General, 1600 Arch Street, Philadelphia, PA 19103, (215) 560-2141. Opposing counsel was Nolan Tully, Esq., Drinker Biddle and Reath, LLP, One Logan Square, Philadelphia, PA 19103, (215) 988-2700.

4. Tingey v. Probation Officer Gardner, et al. The Eastern District of Pennsylvania (Case No. 16-3851) 2019 WL 6828638 E.D. Pa., December 13, 2019. Upheld 827 Fed. Appx. 195, 3rd Cir. September 22, 2020. Judge Jan E. DuBois granted Summary Judgment Motion in its entirety in December 2019. In my capacity as Deputy Attorney General, I represented Defendants Dage Gardner and Caitlin McLaughlin, who are Pennsylvania Parole Officers. Plaintiff claimed false arrest and false imprisonment, a Substantive Due Process violation under the Fourteenth Amendment, and supervisory liability in violation of the Fourteenth Amendment Substantive Due Process. Plaintiff alleged that he was coerced into admitting he violated his parole and waiving his right to a preliminary hearing and violation hearing, saying he was threatened by the parole officer and supervisor. I was sole counsel, and opposing counsel was Alan Denenberg, Abramson & Denenberg, 1315 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, PA 19107, (215) 398-7066.

I am currently attempting to supplement this list with some of the cases I tried at the Chester County District Attorney’s office. I did not retain the names of all of the cases I tried to verdict between 2002 and 2012, and I do not recall all of the names of the criminal defendants. I will supplement the record with case captions and summaries once I successfully obtain the information.

14. If a substantial period of your practice has been before administrative boards, commissions or agencies during the past five years, identify the boards, commissions or agencies before which you have practiced and estimate percentages of practice time devoted thereto:

Although a small portion of my practice has required dealings with administrative boards and agencies of the Commonwealth, it was not a substantial portion.
15. If a substantial portion of your practice has been before Appellate courts during the past five years, identify the Appellate Courts before which you have practiced and estimate percentages of practice time devoted thereto:

In the past five years I have had one appearance before the Commonwealth Court for oral argument. As assistant general counsel for PASSHE / West Chester University between 2012 and 2015, I have had appeals from the board of claims and appeals from Right to Know requests go before the Commonwealth Court. For these matters, I prepared briefs and written summations, which were reviewed and decided by the Commonwealth Court, but did not require oral argument before the Court.

It is important to highlight that as a prosecutor at the Chester County District Attorney’s office I was assigned to the appellate unit for approximately 3 years between January 2009 and March 2012. I was assigned several criminal appeals during that time period. I wrote and submitted several briefs on behalf of the Commonwealth and participated in several oral arguments in front of Superior Court panels.

30. List your experiences in teaching and lecturing, including law school, continuing legal education and to non-legal audiences.

I have never held a teaching position that involved a structured academic program in higher education and have never taught a CLE course. As a senior prosecutor at the Chester County District Attorney’s Office I have taught legal training and case law updates to law enforcement officers throughout Chester County between the years 2008 and 2012. In my capacity as a legal intern supervisor, I trained law school students who were certified legal interns at the Chester County DA’s Office. - Crime Victim’s Center of Chester County Award for Victim Services (March 2012)

33. State any other information which may reflect positively or adversely on you or which you believe should be disclosed in connection with consideration of you for an election to an Appellate Court of Pennsylvania.

While attending Temple University Law School at night, I worked full-time as a law clerk in the Philadelphia District Attorney’s Office to help pay my tuition. I balanced the demands of both my full-time employment and legal studies, earning honors at Temple Law School and graduating cum laude in 2001. My road to practicing law was not easy, but the study and practice of law was and continues to be my passion. My life path shows that I am no stranger to hard work or overcoming obstacles. It also demonstrates my determination to succeed once I establish a goal for myself.

I also believe I have the proper demeanor and skill set to serve as an appellate judge. I am highly organized and have always conducted myself in the courtroom and in my work with the highest degree of professionalism. I believe I am both an inherently fair and inquisitive individual who has always worked to ensure that both the law and justice are served. If elected, I am committed to maintaining a respectful courtroom and approach each case before me with an open-mind.

34. Why do you wish to become a Justice or Judge?

All of my life I have had a deep respect for our Constitution and our system of justice. I have practiced for several years and spent a large part of my career helping others navigate both the criminal and civil judicial system. I respect the system highly, but understand why some fear it. Individuals who serve in the role of judge must recognize that they are the arbiter of the rules and the process. This is a great power that requires objectivity, an innate sense of fairness, and humility. I possess these traits, and desire to deliver to the citizens a justice system that shows respect and fairness in knowledgeable decision-making that takes in the parties perspectives and applies the law objectively.

What special strengths do you feel you possess that would particularly well qualify you for the position of Justice or Judge?
In addition to my sound grasp of the relevant applicable law experience, I possess several additional qualities that I believe an effective judge needs. The additional qualities have little to do with legal acumen and everything to do with being a sound jurist and fair human being.

- I am a good “people person” who listens and tries to understand arguments whether rudimentary or complex.
- I am an efficient thinker. I can quickly assess complex thoughts and principles and deduce them into understandable concepts.
- I possess an innate respect of all people from all walks of life. The golden rule is my life mantra and has served me well in my practice. Everyone has a role in the courtroom, and all of those roles require respect. Not all individuals have had the same education and opportunities, but all humans that have either voluntarily or involuntarily entered the court system deserve to be listened to with thoughtful attention and a judge must always attempt to understand the grievance before them.

35. Did you sign the PBA Judicial Campaign Advertising Guidelines? (Please return signed pledge with completed questionnaire.) Yes.
