The 2020 Election: A Pandemic, Mail-In Ballots, Security Concerns and Lawsuits
Wednesday, May 19, 2021 • 2-4 p.m.
2 substantive CLE credits

This two-hour presentation will focus on two historical aspects of the 2020 election. The first hour will consist of the logistics of the 2020 election, the first presidential election that took place during a global pandemic. High-level representatives from the Department of State will discuss the challenges 2020 presented in the presidential election: an increase in mail-in ballots, mail delays, security and fraud concerns, pandemic concerns, etc. The second hour will focus on the many and different lawsuits prior to, during and after the 2020 balloting, and how the cases were litigated and decided. Hear from high-level representatives from the Office of the Attorney General and Office of General Counsel.

Panelists:
• J. Bart DeLone, Chief Deputy Attorney General, Appellate Division, Pennsylvania Office of the Attorney General
• Timothy E. Gates, Esq., Chief Counsel, Pennsylvania Department of State
• Jonathan M. Marks, Deputy Secretary for Elections and Commissions, Pennsylvania Department of State
• Keli M. Neary, Esq., Executive Deputy Attorney General, Pennsylvania Office of the Attorney General
• Karen M. Romano, Chief Deputy Attorney General, Litigation Section, Pennsylvania Office of the Attorney General

Moderators:
• Ana Paulina Gomez, Esq., Department Counsel, Pennsylvania Insurance Department, Office of Chief Counsel
• Gerard M. Mackarevich, Esq., Assistant Counsel, Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities

Cost:
PBA members .......................... $99
Non-PBA members ..................... $149
PBI ProPass holders ..................... FREE

Register online here.