

PBA Civil Litigation Section Philadelphia Regional Dinner

Monday, April 8, 2019
Morton's The Steakhouse, 1411 Walnut Street, Philadelphia

5:30 p.m. - Reception
6:15 p.m. - Dinner and Speaker

Guest Speaker
President Judge Jack A. Panella, Superior Court of Pennsylvania

President Judge Jack Panella was elected statewide to the Superior Court of Pennsylvania in November 2003 and sworn into office as an appellate judge on Jan. 9, 2004. He was retained in 2013 for a new 10-year term and presides over appeals from civil, criminal and family law cases. Panella worked in both a municipal capacity and in a diverse private practice with emphasis in civil and criminal litigation. He received the President's Award from the Pennsylvania Conference of State Trial Judges in 2002 and was appointed by the Chief Justice of Pennsylvania to the Commission for Justice Initiatives in Pennsylvania. Panella has extensive experience in judicial ethics and discipline and is the only judge to have not only served two terms on the Judicial Conduct Board but also to be elected as president judge for this important tribunal.

President Judge Jack A. Panella

The section recognizes Court Call and National Forensic Consultants for their generous support of the dinner.
