Join us in Hershey!

The Pennsylvania Bar Association Family Law Section will hold its annual winter meeting in Hershey on January 15 through 17. Our venue will be the beautiful and historic Hotel Hershey. Always a wonderful meeting site, the Hotel Hershey has recently completed a $67 million renovation and expansion program. Along with dramatic upgrades to the hotel’s face, the renovations include the construction of 10 new luxury guest cottages, 7 new boutique shops, a year-round ice skating rink and the cozy new restaurant/bar, “Harrow.” Not to worry, the traditional Hershey Hotel amenities are still there (a great spa, large indoor pool and fine dining, to mention only a few!)

The Section events begin on Friday evening with a welcoming reception in the hotel. On Friday afternoon, we will co-sponsor a program with the Pennsylvania chapter of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. During the CLE Program, AAML fellows will “open their form files,” providing you with paragraphs and language to include in all of your legal documents including initial engagement letters, marital settlement agreements and case closing letters. This advanced program is open to all meeting attendees and is included in your registration fee.

Saturday features a wonderful lineup of CLE programs. First, nationally recognized legal-writing expert Timothy Terrell teaches “Advanced Legal Writing & Editing: Beyond Logic to Coherence and Strength.” Professor Terrell has taught advanced legal writing to thousands of attorneys across the United States — always to “rave reviews.” The late morning plenary session investigates intriguing ethical issues — “Protecting Expert and Attorney Communications.” The always-energetic Hon. Jeannine Tugel spearheads the panel. I guarantee you will gain knowledge about topics you never before considered.

After lunch, we will offer four workshops: (1) “The Ultimate Support Notebook” provides you with the latest compilation of all cases addressing what is and what is not income for support determination purposes in Pennsylvania. An experienced panel (including the Hon. David N. Wecht) will lead you through an analysis of the more intricate of these income cases; (2) “Death During Divorce: Issues You Haven’t Even Thought Of” includes a discussion of the intricate issues that arise when family court collides with orphans’ court. The Hon. Katherine Platt (an experienced jurist in both the matrimonial and estate arenas) will lead the panel; (3) “Contract Issues Impacting on the Drafting and Enforcement of Agreements” will address a plethora of issues that will improve your ability to properly draft and enforce a variety of matrimonial documents and (4) “Dissecting a Custody Case from the Psychologists’ Perspective” features a group of highly credentialed mental health professionals addressing a series of issues that go to the heart of the custody evaluation process.

After a full day of learning, we again turn to fun! Saturday evening we will travel via trolley to “The Hershey Story — The Museum on Chocolate Avenue.” The cocktail reception at this brand new interactive museum will feature innovative food, desserts and creative cocktails, as well as private, docent-led tours of this fantastic facility.

On Sunday, our presenters will bring you the latest case law updates together with insights into pending and recently passed legislation that impact upon our practices. An analysis of revised Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure will also be presented.

Please join us in Hershey for a great educational, networking and social experience!

Winter Meeting
January 15-17, 2010 • The Hotel Hershey
The Family Law Section will hold its annual Winter Meeting at The Hotel Hershey January 15–17, 2010. Join your fellow members in obtaining up to 9 hours of substantive CLE credits and 1 hour of ethics CLE credit on a variety of subjects. As a new initiative, we will be providing each registrant with a “memory stick” version of the CLE materials. We know you are familiar with the usual PBI blue book, but the PBAFLS is “going green”, so your “book” will come to you as a computer enhancement. For those who still wish to receive the regular printed book, an additional $50 charge will be added to your registration fee. You will need to request the book on the registration form. As always, there will be plenty of time to socialize, with receptions on Friday and Saturday evening. Be sure to mark your registration early.

ASSISTANCE WITH REGISTRATION FEES

There will be a limited number of reduced registrations available to Section members to assist with registration fees. Registration fees will be waived for the first 10 PBAFLS members who have never before attended a semi-annual meeting. To apply, please mark the appropriate section on the registration form.

In addition, Section members who have previously attended this meeting may be eligible for complete or partial scholarships through the Membership Incentive Program. Interested applicants should contact Janell Klein of the PBA by telephone at (717) 258-6751, Ext. 2251, or by e-mail at jklein@pabar.org for details. Application for this scholarship must be made on or before December 18, 2009.

Along with dramatic upgrades to the hotel’s front entrance, the renovations include the construction of 10 new luxury guest cottages, 7 new boutique shops, a year-round ice skating rink and the cozy new restaurant/Bar, "Haven." Not to worry, the traditional Hershey Hotel amenities are still there (an 18,000-sq. ft. indoor pool and fine dining, to mention only a few!)

The Section events begin on Friday evening with a welcoming reception in the hotel. On Friday afternoon, we will co-sponsor a program with the Pennsylvania chapter of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. During this CLE Program, AAML fellows will “open their form files,” providing you with paragraphs and language to include in all of your legal documents including initial engagement letters, marital settlement agreements and case closing letters. Wecht) will lead you through an analysis of the most intricate of these income cases; (2) “Death During Divorce: Issues You Haven’t Even Thought Of” includes a discussion of the intricate issues that arise when family court collides with orphans’ court. The Hon. Katherine Platt (an experienced jurist in both the matrimonial and estate arenas) will lead the panel; (3) “Contract Issues Impacting on the Drafting and Enforcement of Agreements” will address a plethora of issues that will improve your ability to properly draft and enforce a variety of matrimonial documents and (4) “Dissecting a Custody Case from the Psychologists’ Perspective” features a group of highly credentialed mental health professionals addressing a series of issues that go to the heart of the custody evaluation process.

Also a full day of learning, we again turn to fun! Saturday evening we will travel via trolley to “The Hershey Story — The Museum on Chocolate Avenue.” The cocktail reception at this brand new interactive museum will feature innovative food, desserts and creative cocktails, as well as private, docent-led tours of this fantastic facility.

On Sunday, our presenters will bring you the latest case law updates together with insights into pending and recently passed legislation that impact upon our practices. An analysis of recent Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure will also be presented.

Please join us in Hershey for a great educational, networking and social experience!
