PBA Family Law Section
SUMMER MEETING

July 12-15, 2012 • Hotel Hershey

100 Hotel Road • Hershey, Pa. 17033
Reservations: 1-800-HERSHEY (437-7439)
Please join us at the PBA Family Law Section Summer Meeting in Hershey, July 12-15, 2012. There really is no better opportunity to enjoy a great mid-summer break from the office and also earn 10.5 credits of topical continuing legal education.

Our programs this summer focus on subjects that touch our practices every day but that we have not yet addressed at our meetings. We lead off on Friday, July 13, with a plenary session on military issues — support, pensions and, in light of recent legislation, custody problems that involve our military families. The breakout sessions on Friday explore issues on immigration, including an in-depth look at the Love case, and on how to deal with the Internal Revenue Service when tax issues arise.

On Saturday, July 14, our plenary session features a presentation on judicial and lawyer discipline. We follow with breakout sessions on paternity with the lawyers who tried the K.E.M. case before the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, and on law firm marketing for family law practices. We are fortunate to have great panelists who will provide personal insight to the weekend's topics. Be sure also to attend the case law, legislative and rules updates on Sunday, July 15.

This all happens at the beautiful Hotel Hershey, within driving distance of everywhere in Pennsylvania. The accommodations are superb and there are plenty of great activities for the whole family, including Hersheypark. For those who prefer a more sedate experience, a golf outing is also on the agenda.

Please register and make your reservations early, as, if the Winter Meeting is any indication, the Summer Meeting will be a quick sellout. I look forward to seeing you and your family in Hershey in July.

Joe Martone, Chair
