Pennsylvania Bar Association
Labor & Employment Law Section Retreat
March 8-9, 2019
The Hershey Lodge
Hershey, Pa.
Warm and welcoming, spacious yet cozy, and with chocolate details at every turn, the Hershey Lodge is the location of the 2019 PBA Labor and Employment Law Section Retreat. Join fellow members and colleagues in receiving up to 5 hours of substantive CLE credits, including 1.0 ethics CLE credit, on a variety of timely and interesting subjects by exceptional speakers.

Friday begins with a late afternoon ethics session focusing on the #MeToo topic followed by a reception and dinner featuring keynote speaker, Gillian Thomas, author of Because of Sex: One Law, Ten Cases, and Fifty Years That Changed American Women’s Lives at Work, which is worth CLE credit. Saturday’s programming includes sessions examining recent developments from key agencies including the NLRB, PHRC, EEOC and PLRB, a review of top employment cases by esteemed members of the judiciary, and wraps up with a review of hot topics in labor and employment law and related areas.

Consider arriving early or plan to stay longer to take advantage of the many exciting amenities and activities offered by “The Sweetest Place on Earth”.

Resort Accommodations:
The Hershey Lodge offers graciously appointed guest rooms featuring many comfortable amenities to enhance your stay including in-room coffee and mini-refrigerators. Guest rooms are located throughout the resort and feature king and queen beds.

Registration Fees:
The section generously subsidizes retreat costs for all Labor and Employment Law Section members. The registration fee of $195 includes 5.0 CLE credits, including 1 ethics CLE credit, CLE materials delivered electronically in advance of the meeting, and planned meals including Friday’s reception and dinner and Saturday’s continental breakfast, lunch and refreshment breaks. Section members who are also members of the Young Lawyers Division (YLD) of the PBA and those in practice five years or less receive a deeper registration fee discount and pay just $99 to attend! To register online, click here.

Location/Directions:
Conveniently located in central Pennsylvania, Hershey is a two-hour drive from Philadelphia and less than four hours from Pittsburgh. The resort is serviced by Harrisburg International Airport (MDT) and offers shuttle service for a nominal fee.

- Enjoy the 30,000 sq. ft. indoor pool complex featuring water slides, splash pads and interactive water features — complimentary for all Hershey Lodge overnight guests.
- Rejuvenate and indulge in a signature spa treatment at The Chocolate Spa located in The Hotel Hershey. Options include warm chocolate fondue body wraps, cocoa massages, and more. Advance reservations are strongly suggested and can be made by calling 717-520-5888.
- Take advantage of easy access to Hershey attractions including Chocolate World, Zoo America, Tanger outlet shopping and more.
