NOMINATION FOR
2022 CHRISTIANSON AWARD

The Public Utility Law Section of the Pennsylvania Bar Association is seeking nominations for its annual Christianson Award. This award will be presented to an individual, or on behalf of an individual, at the 2022 Public Utility Bench Bar Conference on May 20, 2022.

THE NOMINATION DEADLINE IS APRIL 8, 2022

The recipient of the Christianson Award will be an individual who has made an outstanding contribution in the area of public utility law in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Nominees must satisfy the following criteria as set forth by the Public Utility Law Section:

The honoree is to be an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to the development, improvement or furtherance of the profession of public utility law in Pennsylvania. The award may be given for some past or current activity by the honoree, or for the life's work of the honoree. The Section Council shall solicit nominations from the membership with an explanation of the basis for honoring the nominated on an annual basis. The award will be presented in conjunction with a bar association, educational or other event generally attended by members of the section.
